The Editor's column

S. R. PADDOCK

There were a lot of parents of boys and girls, members of church youth groups, who fell down on their job last Sunday afternoon. The youths of nine churches of this area met in conference at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church. There were only a handful of parents who were sufficiently interested to accompany their sons and daughters to the event.

How can the parent expect his son and daughter to accompany him to church Sunday morning when he fails to be interested in a youth program Sunday afternoon.

Mr. "Palatine Merchant" tells us he was misquoted last week in a story regarding a Mexican boy who had used several cars to go joyriding.

The merchant says he did not warn an Arlington Heights employer against hiring the boy.

The merchant also says he has no animosity against the boy. If society gives him a break, the merchant thinks the boy can become a useful American citizen.

There are over 500 families in Rolling Meadows who read a Paddock Publication each week. Starting this week, a Rolling Meadows edition makes it first appearance. It will not only carry the pertinent Arlington Heights news of special interest to residents of the new city, but will also contain Palatine stories of particular interest to school patrons of the Rolling Meadows school.

Smart businessmen interested in reaching those 500 families can do so easily through our advertising columns. (All TV and radio news broadcasters tie up with a commercial. Why should not this editor claim the same right?)

We have discovered that there are a lot of Arlington Heights people who are not particularly interested in municipal water softening. Some of them would rather have the earnings of the water department used to cut the present water rate or be used on a major sewer project that would avoid flooded basements.

We always like to see a newspaper writer stick up for his home town. The writer of the feature predicting slum areas in many Cook county suburbs, published in a Chicago newspaper last Saturday, exempted from that fate Palatine and Arlington Heights. He said that those communities have active plan commissions which are doing an excellent job on area planning.

That writer must be a resident of this area and a reader of Paddock Publications which keeps him posted on what the Palatine and Arlington plan commissions are doing.

Mt. Prospect appears to be the only community that promises a warm election campaign. Perhaps the weather has been so cold in Palatine and Arlington Heights that candidates are in a hibernation state.

Later—We have just received word that the hibernation has ended.

We attended a property owners meeting in Arlington last week at which there were upwards of 100 persons present. None of them had resided in Arlington longer than two years.

Everyone of them is glad he is a resident, is proud of his new home and is interested in good government. They do not have any axes to grind because their area has all public improvements. They told us that all their desires are satisfied in Arlington Heights except ample parking for the commuter.

Did you know that Arlington Heights has 10 assistant mayors? By that term we mean that there are 10 property owners' organizations, each of which has a president who occupies a somewhat mayoralty position in his particular bailiwick.

Wally Grace, athletic director of the Arlington Heights high school, speaking at the Fathers' and Sons' dinner at St. John church last week said he was making that evening his first speech in the ten years he has been in Arlington.

We heard a youngster say, "It was a great talk, but why shouldn't it be? He waited ten years to give it."

In our estimation, that address was both a real sermon on character building and a pep talk to dads about the importance of Little League activities.

We suggest that the Safety Council intervene in the cold war that evidently exists between the state highway department and the village of Arlington Heights.

Not only has the state turned a deaf ear to request of Arlington Heights police department for four-way stop signs at Campbell and Wilke, but has removed 40 mile signs installed by the county and refused stop signs at the Wilke intersection of Thomas and Olive sts.

The state highway's alibi is that investigation shows that traffic does not warrant the protection the signs would bring. The state investigator arrived on the job after heavy morning traffic and left before the evening rush.

Does somebody have to die before the state department permits installation of a few safety measures?

DR. HOWARD F. LOWRY

Noted Educator To Highlight PTA Founders' Day

Dr. Howard F. Lowry, president of the Colloge of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio, will speak to the combined PTA groups of Arlington Heights Tuesday evening at 8:15 p.m. in the Junior high gymnasium. The main feature of the program,

Dr.Lowry's address will follow a short Founders'Day ceremony and election of officers for the next school year.

A 1923 graduate of Wooster, Dr. Lowry has served as its president for over ten years, resigning a 4-year tenure as professor of English literature at Princeton university to accept the post. He received his Ph. D. from Yale university in 1931, on his return from the second of three trips to England and France to further his studies in English Literature. After his third trip abroad in 1933, while a professor of English at Wooster University, he received a Guggenheim Fellowship in foreign study, and was appointed head of Wooster's English department in 1934.

HE IS the editor of numerous literary collections, including the "Oxford Anthology of English Poetry," and is the author of "The Mind's Adventure," a Religious Book of the Month selection in July, 1950. The appearance in Arlington Heights of such an outstanding educator will offer PTA members and all interested residents an opportunity to hear a program of unusual merit.

Opening the PTA meeting Tuesday evening, a tableau to commemorate the founding of PTA will be presented in the form of three brief pantomimes, with narration by Jack McComb and musical background by members of the mixed chorus of junior high school. Election of officers will follow, and all members of Arlington Heights PTA are urged to cast their votes for officers to serve in the important year ahead.

Voters Asked to Approve Bond Issue, Tax Rate Increase

A full discussion of the proposal to add to the Arlington Heights township high school, reported here last week, will be held in the new gymnasium of the high school at 8 p.m., Wednesday, February 16. Also to be discussed will be the proposals to increase the maximum limits on taxes for the education and building funds.

INFORM YOURSELF

Two reports on the high school enrollment problem are being made to all families in the district. Look in your mailbox for:

February 9—Citizens Lay Advisory Committee report on its findings and recommendations.

February 16—Board of Education's report on Step No. 1 in the expansion program.

Principal speaker will be Charles Nicol, senior partner of the architectural firm of Nicol and Nicol, designers of the building project. Elmer F. Laurin, president of the board of education, and Nicholas J. Latof, chairman of the citizens' lay advisory committee will present the members of their groups. Kenneth E. Dougan, member of the board, will preside.

THE TOTAL bond issue of $1,250,000 for which approval is sought would cover construction, major repairs to the old building, relocation of the front drive and walks, all necessary fees, and such equipment as could not be financed from current operating funds.

A bond retirement schedule of only ten years instead of the more customary twenty years is planned in order to preserve bonding power for use in future building projects which will be necessary as the enrollment expands.

This would result in an initial tax rate increase, based upon an assessed valuation of all property in the district of $90,000,000, of 17 cents per $100 of assessed value. This would, of course, decline rapidly as principal was paid off and as the assessed valuation of the district is increased by the addition of new property to the tax roles.

In terms of actual taxes in individual homes, it is expected that the first, and highest, cost would be only $8.68 per year on an average home in this area valued for tax purposes at $5,000.

THE EFFECT upon taxes of approval of new maximum rates of 96 cents per $100 assessed valuation and 18¾ for the educational and building funds is difficult to predict. Increase in maximum rates is necessary as enrollment expands with demands for more teachers, supplies, transportation facilities, building maintenance and the like. Actual rates within the maximums, however, are set annually depending upon the need and the assessed valuation of the district at the time. Even should the full tax rate maximums be required for both funds, the annual tax increase on an average home with an assessed valuation of $5,000 would be $14.88.

Support of all propositions, the tax rate maximum increases as well as the addition to the present building, has been pledged by the Citizens' Lay Advisory Committee as essential to the continuation of the quality of education offered in this community in recent years.

2 Tickets to File in Heights Election

It is now certain that there will be two tickets in the field at the Arlington Heights village election in April.

The names of the present trustees, David Zimmerman, Edward Carlisle, and William McNeil, will appear on one ticket. Trustee Edwin Johnson will run independent.

A complete slate of candidates will be filed next week opposing the present village board members whose terms expire this year.

Present members of the library board who will be candidates for re-election are Mrs. Blanche Ashton and Robert Dibble.

William Neumann, police magistrate, will also be a candidate for re-election.

Rolling Meadows And Arlington Close Race For New Families

Rolling Meadows and Arlington Heights are running a close race in the number of new residents. Arlington was one up in number of families and eight up in family size.

Mrs. A. Conger of the Arlington Heights Welcome service, visited the homes of 119 new families during January. In Arlington Heights six comprised only two persons; there were 19 with 3 members; 23 with four members; and 12 with 5 members.

Rolling Meadows families visited included seven with 2 members; 22 with three members; 18 with four members; 11 of 5 members and one family of six.

Since calling in Rolling Meadows, Mrs. Conger has made the acquaintance of 513 families representing a population of 1750. Her January calls in Rolling Meadows were almost "door-to-door." All except two of the 59 visited resided on Meadow Drive, Fremont st., Lark Court or Jay Lane.

New families visited in Arlington Heights since she started the service total 1543, representing 5639 individuals.

Business potential in Arlington Heights is increasing rapidly. According to Mrs. Conger, there were 434 more mouths to be fed in January than a month earlier.

The advertising pages of Paddock Publications show which firms are soliciting that business.

Arlington $1,000 Short Of Goal In Scout Fund Drive

The recent boy scout fund drive of the Northwest Suburban Council fell $1,000 short of its goal in Arlington Heights, and only a few dollars short in Mount Prospect.

To date $7,600 has been collected in Arlington. The goal, however, was $8,600. Mount Prospect's goal was $3,500 and a total of $3,428 has been collected.

Prospect Heights will hold its drive Sunday and has a goal of $1,500.

Those still wishing to contribute to the Arlington Heights drive are urged to mail their donations to Floyd Burns, drive chairman, at 514 N. Ridge, Arlington Heights.

Palatine Boy, 16, Hurt In Gun Blast

A 16-year-old Palatine youth is in Resurrection hospital with serious leg wounds as a result of a freak gun accident Saturday night.

He is Lee Mudlaff, of Glencoe rd., who was trying to adjust the ejector mechanism on a shot gun when it exploded and splattered buckshot into his leg.

The boy phoned a doctor and administered first aid to himself. He will be in the hospital for a week to 10 days.

At the time of the accident, he was home alone.

County to Spend $300,000 On Elk Grove - Wheeling Roads

Wheeling and Elk Grove townships are slated to receive $319,500 in road and bridge improvement during 1955, according to William Mortimer, superintendent of Cook county highways.

The roads to be improved include Euclid ave., Arlington Heights rd., McHenry rd, in Wheeling township, and Central rd., which is the boundry of the townships.

Included in Elk Grove is Oakton st. from Elmhurst to Mannheim which is to be widened from 20 to 24 ft. at a cost of $33,000.

Also listed for third year is the culvert over Buffalo Creek on Aptakisic rd., at a cost of $31,000.

The Euclid ave. improvement will be the widening to four lanes between Wilke rd. and Northwest hwy. at a cost of $120,000.

Arlington Hts. rd., betweent Central and Northwest hwy., will be resurfaced at a cost of $48,000.

McHenry rd. is to be resurfaced between Dundee rd. and Lake-Cook county line at a cost of $42,000.

The 18 to 22 ft. widening of Central rd. will cost $62,000.

The 1955 construction program for Cook county as drawn up by the county highway department and approved by the board of commissioners includes work on expressways and 31 projects of various types on non-expressway streets and highways in Chicago and suburbs.

Three Candidates Named For Grade School Board

The 1955 nominating committee for candidates for the board of education of school district 25, Arlington Heights, at its third and final meeting February 7, nominated Richard L. Johnston, Lambert W. Bredehoft, and William F. Hannum for members of the board.

The ele tion will be April 9, and the polling places will be the North school and South school, Arlington Heights.

JOHNSTON, who is now a member of the board, and whose term is expiring this year, was nominated to succeed himself. The president of the board, Robert R. Lockwood of 312 Derbyshire ln., and the secretary, Melvin L. Kurtz of 805 S. Mitchell ave., had announced that they were not candidates for re-election.

Johnston is a patent attorney with degrees from Johns Hopkins and George Washington universities. He lives at 532 Banbury rd., Arlington Heights. He is 47 years of age, has lived in Arlington Hts. for 16 years, and has children in Dryden school and Junior high school.

BREDEHOFT is a vice president of the Harris Trust and Savings bank in Chicago a graduate of Northwestern university, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and lives at 201 Wilshire ln., Arlington Hts. He is 42 years of age, has lived in Arlington Heights for 4 years, and has two children in the North school.

Hannum is an electrical engineer, a graduate of Iowa State college, and lives at 1020 N. Fernandez ave., Arlington Heights. He is 38 years of age, has lived in Arlington for 6 years, and has two children in Ridge school.

THE NOMINATING committee was composed of representatives of the PTA from each of the five schools in the district, and from each of the 12 civic and community organizations. Any non-political, non-religious organization that is civic and/or educational in interest, and that has been in operation during the two previous years may petition for representation on the 1956 committee.

Before adjourning, the committee elected Sam Witof, 643 S. Newbury, president of the 1956 committee, and Elmer W. Lindemann of 643 S. Evergreen, as vice-chairman.

Park Ridge Police Plea Of No Avail

Six Park Ridge homes were burglarized in one evening last week as Police Chief Willis Jones pleaded with home owners to leave night lights burning.

Homes broken into were H. F. Miller, 900 S. Knight; Robert Rappley, 420 S. Knight; Mrs. Fred C. Stagg, 424 S. Knight; Guy Stephens, 1407 Touhy; and William Schlegel, 1029 S. Lincoln.

Seek Lower Water Rates For Rolling Meadows

Following the June and September billing periods the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association distributed "water survey" cards to all residents requesting information regarding the number of gallons of water used, the amount of the bill, the number of people in the family, and if sprinkling was being done.

The information contained in these water survey cards has now been tabulated under the direction of John Nash of Wing st. Final report of the special water committee, under the co-chairmanship of Gene Farrell and Bob Kreutz, shows that the average water usage of Rilling Meadows families is 19,077 gallons per quarter. It was also found that the number of people in a family had a very direct bearing on the amount of water used in all but a few unusual cases.

SINCE THE Arlington Water company in their presentations before the Illinois Commerce Commission stated that, based on their previous experience, average water consumption in Rolling Meadows would be approximately 13,250 gallons per quarter, and it was on this basis that current Rolling Meadows water rates were set, it is hoped that the results of this water usage survey will provide a basis for the voluntary lowering of water rates by the water company.

North Side Paper Pickup Saturday

The regular bi-monthly scout paper pick up will be held Saturday in Arlington Heights on the north side of town, which covers all homes lying north of Northwest hwy.

Papers and magazines should be securely tied and placed on the curb by 9:30 a.m. Saturday. The price of scrap paper is increasing and the scouts hope all their old "customers" as well as many new ones will participate in Saturday's drive.

Special handling can be arranged by calling CL 3-4224 before 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Stratton Considers Northwest Transit Line For Commuters

Gov. Stratton is considering a plan to install three rapid transit tracks, capable of carrying 36,000 passengers, in the median strip of the proposed Chicago Northwest expressway

He is considering the proposal in line with the state's interest in obtaining relief for suburban commuters.

The transit line would serve the northwest area from the loop to O'Hare field.

Board Considers Sewer Remedy A Must

Since the announcement last week of a proposed water softening plant for Arlington Heights, the village has received various inquiries as to what consideration is being given at this time to improve the sewage facilities.

The people inquiring were of the opinion a village water softening plant would be fine, but they would like to have dry basements first.

THE MATTER was discussed Tuesday night at an informal meeting of the village board, following a board of local improvements meeting. Trustees wished to have it pointed out that the village has not forgotten the floods of last spring and wheels are already in motion to correct the situation.

Village engineers are making a complete survey of the sewer system in Arlington Heights and when it is completed they will make a recommendation to the board as to what is needed to correct it.

At present the engineers have completed a field survey of Weller drainage creek, which carries off the treated sewage from Arlington Heights, from the outlet of the sewage treatment plant to Mount Prospect road, southeast of the village of Mount Prospect. They have just received approval to survey the creek through Des Plaines to its outlet at the Des Plaines river.

Facts obtained from this survey will more or less tell the story as to how much relief sewer work is necessary in the village. It is believed that a great deal of the village' trouble lies in the creek, and once that is corrected it will be easier to ascertain whether or not additional sewers are needed.

ENGINEERS will not be able to touch plans for the proposed water softening plant for another 60 days. In the meantime the village hopes to have some idea of the extent of the sewer problem and what it might cost to remedy it.

Besides the surveys being made by the engineers the village has actually done considerable work on the sewers with the rodding and bucketing equipment purchased last summer. Many sewers have already been cleaned and subsequent rain has not flooded basements in those areas as it did in the past.

Public Pressure on Governor Needed to Save Common Schools

by CHARLES HAYES

If public pressure is great enough, Gov. Stratton will break a campaign promise not to increase taxes.

Currently the state faces a serious crisis in its schools.

Unless some kind of state aid is forthcoming, the quality of education offered by Illinois schools will drop sharply.

There aren't enough school buildings.

Classrooms are over-crowded and under-staffed.

The whole state faces a serious teacher shortage.

In Cook county, most school districts are unable to meet school needs.

There will continue to be double sessions in many schools, with even larger classroom enrollments. Arlington Heights high school has been forced to approve double sessions for next fall.

In the elementary schools, Mount Prospect and Palatine face an even greater crisis than hard-pressed Arlington grammar schools.

Already 28 school districts have reached the limit of their educational tax levying power, and 45 elementary districts which include the 28 already at the maximum, are now levying an educational rate of $1 or more per $100 of assessed valuation.

Forty-five elementary districts out of 132 now existing in suburban Cook county are without further bonding power for desperately needed buildings.

Suburban elementary enrollment since 1950 alone has jumped more than 43 per cent.

At present, the state provides less than 16 per cent of the Illinois common schools support.

Yet Illinois is the nation's sixth wealthiest state.

One answer to the school crisis is state aid—and that means new sources of revenue for the emaciated state treasury.

Because school needs have become monumental, county educators are confident Stratton will bow to increased pressure from the press and public to increase the sales tax.

Such an increase is needed to maintain present standards.

In discussing suburban school needs with Paddock Publications this week, First Assistant County Superintendent David J. Heffernan said country towns face three particularly serious problems.

First, the Illinois School Problems commission recommended December 29 an increase in the "foundation program" from $173 to $181 and raising the "qualifying rate" from 40 cents per $100 of assessed valuation to 49 cents.

"This has confused most tax payers," said Heffernan.

This is how the program operates.

Although the state knows the average cost of adequately educating an elementary pupil in Cook county is $304.92, the treasury hasn't funds to meet this standard.

Thus, a compromise figure of $173 per pupil was agreed upon.

Frank Knudsen Named Civil Defense Director

Frank Knudsen, 2302 Campbell st, has been named as civil defense director for Rolling Meadows by Joseph A. Downey director, Cook county civil defense and safety commission.

KNUDSEN'S appointment was recommended by Albert F. DePue, township supervisor of Palatine township at the request of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association. He has been charged with the basic problem of developing a civil defense system for Rolling Meadows itself as well as cooperating in planning for refugee assistance in the event of enemy attack on Chicago.

Kundsen's appointment was announced to residents of Rolling Meadows in a Home Owners' association newsletter last week. He has announced that initial plans call for the listing of all qualified persons with medical or civil defense experience in the area, and has asked for volunteers to assist him in this work.

Music Department To Raise Funds By Door To Door Chocolate Sale

Arlington Heights high school vocal and instrumental departments will launch a winter campaign this week to raise money for the purchase of vocal and instrumental equipment.

This campaign was agreed upon unanimously January 25 at a meeting attended by music department instructors, F. C. Schmoyer, Miss J. Leick, J. Cockrum, M. Dahlberg, and all student members of the music department.

Five hundred members that comprise the music department will sell the World's Finest Chocolate on a door to door canvass of all homes in the high school district. The profits are to be used for the purchase of hi-fidelity equipment.

Harold Slichenmyer, superintendent, expressed complete confidence in the campaign. He said he is proud to represent these music students who not only give up their own free time for practice and to participate in civic activities, but are now working to raise funds so the community might continue to benefit from a well equipped high school music department.

In the running of the compaign, the music faculty will be assisted by Vocal group presidents, Bob Burgess, Bill Randag, Carol Wede, Michael Hendon, Ada Kilbury, and instrumental group presidents Tony Hansen and Joyce Harth.

The wrapper of this pure milk chocolate contains the Cardinal insigna of Arlington Heights high school. First, second, and third prizes will be awarded to the music groups that gain the most points for selling the chocolate.

Busy Family

The William Kelly family has been having a busy time lately. It began on January 15, with the arrival of a new son, Richard Michael; then came Maurita's twelfth birthday with a celebration at home and taking a few friends to the movies; January 31, was Mrs. Kelly's birthday, and February 7, was their thirteenth wedding anniversary . . . They celebrated their anniversary by attending the Chicago Maternity center's benefit dance and having dinner out.

The Elstes were having a late celebration of their fifteenth anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. W. Friese, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paupa, Mr. and Mrs. F. Flavin, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Elste, all of Chicago, were joined by Mr. and Mrs. D. Friese of Elmhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Rieger of Villa Park at the Elstes' home.

David Huntley was 8 years old recently. David invited a group of school and neighborhood friends to a birthday supper.

Mrs. Lyle W. Ewing entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. William Nevins, a newcomer to the 700 block of Fernandez st. last summer, entertained the neighborhood sewing circle last Thursday.

The snow last weekend was a challenge to the artistic talent of one of our neighbors. Mr. Lyle W. Ewing, of 716 N. Ridge ave., with the help of his four daughters, created a very striking statue of an Eskimo skinning a fish.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Inselberger and their children, Gerald, Gregory and Susan, have settled into their new home and the community. Mr. Inselberger is very active in Scouting and Gerald is a Cub Scout. Mrs. Inselberger has joined the St. Peter's Mothers' club and enjoys it very much. Their new home is at 640 N. Salem, and they came from Elmwood Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Potokar, are new residents of 824 N. Salem. Mr. Potokar is a civil engineer. Two sons keep Mrs. Potokar busy, Martin, almost 6, and Ralph, almost 3. In their spare time the Potokars are making some furniture for their new home. Mrs. Potokar also likes to sew, read and do painting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Raugstad Jr. of 817 N. Kaspar are busy finishing their new home. They are also enjoying the atmosphere of the "City of Good Neighbors."

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Davis of 647 N. Kaspar, lived outside of town on Rand rd. before moving into their new home. The family includes two daughters, LeAnna and Maureen. Mr. Morris is busy finishing the house, so there isn't time for other hobbies now.

Surprise Party

Miss Martha Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer, was guest of honor at a surprise party January 1, given by Mrs. Arthur Shogren. Miss Schaefer is now home convalescing from injuries received in an accident in 1952. She spent more than a year in the hospital, was home for seven months and then had to return to the hospital for six more weeks. She has been home since August.

While Martha was in the hospital she kept up her studies at Arlington Heights high school with the aid of the Bell telephone communications system which allowed her to listen in to her classes and also to carry on conversations with the class.

Guests at the party were Mrs. R. Lind, Mrs. George Lurtz, Mrs. H. Bayert, Mrs. C. Loechl, Mrs. Charles Rehfeldt and daughter, Charleen, and Jean Campbell. They presented Martha with a gift.

From The Police Blotter...

Being a "good neighbor" cost one woman $50 in Arlington Heights police traffic court Monday night. Since she drove her own children to school, the woman told Judge William Neumann, neighbors asked if she would mind giving their youngsters a ride.

The number of passengers "grew like Topsy" and when she was stopped by local police last week she ahd 16 youngsters, plus herself, riding in a 7 passenger station wagon. The Judge informed her it was against the law to transport school children without a state license authorizing the transportation, and that it was also necessary to have a chauffer's license. She was fined $25 on each count.

Other cases heard involved intoxication, traffic lights, speeding, disorderly conduct, and stop sign. A total of $382 was collected in fines and 24 cases were tried.

Several thefts of automobile accessories were investigated by police and included hub caps and directional signals. Warren Black, 827 S. Mitchell, reported two new Firestone 6-70x15 tires stolen from his garage. He said the thief jimmied a garage window to gain entrance.

Vandalism was reported by Bill Gerken, who said someone entered a house he was building at Harvard and Burgoyne and dumped oil on millwork laying inside the house.

Richard H. Faber, 2308 Eastman st., Rolling Meadows, notified police Monday evening that his 1949 Ford convertible was stolen sometime between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. that day. It was recovered Tuesday morning in the forest preserve by the forest rangers. The keys had not been left in the car.

The inhalator squad was called out last week Tuesday to aid Martin Stoppel, 62, of 121 S. Dunton, who had suffered a heart attack. He was later taken to Sherman hospital, Elgin, by Lauterburg and Oehler's ambulance, where he died Wednesday.

The fire department was called to the home of Fred Jorden, 617 S. State rd., February 3. The television set in the second floor recreation room had shorted out, causing the blaze. Damage was confined to the upstairs.

This Week with PTA

Combined Meeting Promises Big Things

All PTA groups in Arlington Heights will meet together next Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. in the junior high gymnasium. The importance of this meeting requires the presence of all parents and teachers who are able to attend, and its purpose is threefold—to celebrate briefly the founding of PTA; to elect officers for the next school year and to hear an outstanding speaker, the president of Wooster College in Ohio, Dr. Howard F. Lowry. Further information on Dr. Lowry will be found on another page of this issue.

Following the 1954-55 theme of the National Congress of Parents Better Schools, Better Communities"—the Founders' day ceremony will be presented as a short three-part pantomimed tableau, with Jack McComb serving as narrator, and members of the mixed chorus of junior high school providing musical background, under the direction of Walther Liebenow. The first pantomime, "Better Homes," will be represented by members of George Sullivan's family; Mr. Sullivan is treasurer of the Arlington Heights PTA. The second theme, "Better Schools," will be depicted by Miss Laura Grothe, a first-grade teacher at South school, and three of her pupils. The third scene, showing one development of "Better Communities" will be enacted by a group of girl scouts with Mrs. David Zimmerman as leader. Each pantomime will be accompanied by appropriate choral music.

Election of officers for 1955-56 will follow the Founders' day presentation, and it is imperative that all PTA members attend this meeting to help in the selection of those who will serve the association in the vital year ahead.

Mrs. Richard DeZur is serving as chairman of the nominating committee, assisted by committee members Mrs. Richard Bardach and Mrs. Sterling Ross.

Citizens' Lay Committee Reports

Through Mrs. Edward Emery, PTA representative, the Citizens' lay committee, which has been studying the crowded situation of Arlington Heights township high school, reports that present enrollment has created a critical shortage of classrooms. Because of the lack of space, it will be necessary to resort to split sessions next year in our high school—a situation that places in jeopardy our present high rating for college entrance. The North Central association has allowed a 1-year grace period for operation in split sessions; if the situation has not been relieved at the end of that time, the scholastic rating will be lowered.

An election will be held February 26 to decide on the addition of two wings to the present building. Parents of junior high and elementary school children are strongly urged to attend the meeting of the committee Wednesday, Feb. 16, at 8 p.m., in the high school gymnasium, for the purpose of discussing the building plans and proposals. The architects will be present, full details will be presented, and any questions fully answered. Parents of children who will be entering high school in a few years should be vitally concerned with the solution to this problem, and should make a special effort to attend this important meeting.

Capacity Crowd Expected For Winter Revue

Advance ticket sales for the Winter Revue Friday, Feb. 18, show that Arlington Heights residents are itching for a glimpse of their neighbors and friends performing before the footlights. The 2-hour variety show, consisting of 14 fun-packed features, will be given in the junior high gymnasium at 8:15 p.m., and theater concessions such as candy, popcorn and soft drinks will be sold in the outer lobby. Those who have purchased tickets but find thay will be unable to attend the performance Friday evening are invited to present their tickets for the dress rehearsal at 8 p.m. the night before. This final rehearsal is being opened to the public so that families of the cast and those unable to come Friday will not have to miss seeing this outstanding one-time-only presentation. The refreshment concessions will be in operation Thursday as well as Friday. Anyone who has not been contacted by a room mother may obtain tickets from Robert Skamfer at CLearbrook 3-6538.

To Address Presbyterian Women Wednesday

Dr. Howard F. Lowry, president of the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio, will be guest speaker at the February meeting of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights, February 16.

Following a luncheon at 12:30 p. m. in Fellowship hall, the Christian education department, under leadership of Mrs. Albert Goldthwaite, will present Dr. Lowry, who will speak on "Our Mission On the College Campus."

In addition to many other honors and achievements in the educational field, Dr. Lowry is vice president of the borad of trustees of McCormick Theological seminarry, Chicago, and a member of the board of Western Theological seminary. He is a member of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church in the USA, and a member of the board of directors of Presbyterian Life magazine. At present, he is a trustee of the Carnegie foundation.

The devotional part of the program will be led by Mrs. Robert Bradle. A nursery for small children will be provided during the meeting. Reservations should be made through unit leaders, or by calling Mrs. Benjamin S. Benson Jr., Cl 3-1730, by noon, Monday.

A board meeting of the Women's association will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the church.

Community Concert

James De La Fuente, violinist, and Herbert Stessin, pianist, presented the third of the current concert series of community concerts last Sunday night in the Arlington Heights high school. It has never been the pleasure of this reviewer to attend such a concert outside the recital halls of music schools or conservatories. Really, the audience gets two recitals in one, as in this case both an accomplished violinist and an accomplished pianist presented equal parts of a most outstanding program, with both joining in that joy to all music lovers, sonata playing for two instruments.

The program was built of good, solid stuff, yet was played with a finish that held the interest of two servicemen who confessed a limited knowledge of instrumental music, who readily admitted they could have "gone on all night" with that kind of entertainment.

The program was off to the races with Tartini's G minor sonata for both instruments, an opening number of brilliance and large technical demand. If placed later in the program the intonation would probably have been truer and the technic more precise. However, by the time the Brahms Sonata was presented, we heard a most finished performance, a warm tone in the Adagio, and a most profound treatment of the Presto movement. This was Brahms, rugged and virile, powerful and sonorous, especially in the low register of the accompaniment, which so characterises the great master's writing not only for violin and piano, but throughout his Requiem and the great Elijah. Saint Saens was also represented in the sonata form, and received a vigorous and yet most rhythmic treatment, requiring a most advanced technic on the part of both artists.

Three sonatas on one program are a major effort for any pair of artists, and for any group of listeners, and it was an unusual accomplishment not often programmed on the present day concert stage. A varied group of violin solos completed Mr. De La Fuente's part of the program; he is a musician that can play to an audience and keep his program moving, hold one's interest, demonstrate his mastery of his instrument, and above all, make you listen and hold your attention. There is never a dull moment when he is on stage. Another score of years may bring a bit more maturity in depth of understanding, and possibly a less hurried bravura in style, which will still be all to the good.

Mr. Stessin was a most exciting workman, clean in his technic, and with the ability to draw a good tone in his melodic line with a sympathetic accompaniment, as evidenced especially with his playing of Chopin's Berceuse. Phrasing suffered a bit in Scarlatti's G major, but the D minor made up for it with its warmth and graciousness. The Liszt (Rhapsody No. 11) brought forth the long awaited grand style—although there was still more music in that big Steinway than we were privileged to hear. I would have liked to hear one of the Chopin Scherzos, or an Impromptu, or better, three brilliant Waltzes. But that is for another day.

A word on the audience — it was quieter than Orchestra hall on the night preceding — no rustling of programs, talking in more than audible whispers, and other discourtesies for which downtown concertgoers are becoming notorious. Perhaps we need Dr. Stock back again to give a lesson in good listening. Certainly the home town audience gave as respectful a hearing as any artist could wish for. And for this reviewer, you can bring these two young artists back again, and again.

Undergoes Eye Surgery

We wish a speedy recovery for little Karen Patton, who underwent eye surgery at the Presbyterian hospital last Monday. Karen is the daughter of the Frank Pattons of E. St. James.

John Wingquist was a surprised little boy Monday night when Cub Scouts in Den 7 sang out with happy birthday. John's mother brought over cake and ice cream and the boys helped John celebrate his 9th birthday. This celebration was in place of the usual party which had to be abandoned because Janie Wingquist is confined with mumps.

The Ray Berglinds' daughter Barbara, is confined with chicken pox.

Birthday Party

Brian Anderson celebrated his eighth birthday recently with 7 of his boy friends as guests at an afternoon party of games and refreshments. Dick Evans, Danny Roth, Edward Johann, Kurt Menick, Michael Barton, Billy Kasper, and Peery Duderstadt were present. Brian is particularly happy about this birthday as he is now old enough to join the Cub Scouts.

February 9 Sandy Petrie had as her luncheon guests, Karen Kasper, Pan Fruehling, Lynn Larson, Mary Lee Barton, Carol Cockrell, and Susie and Jo Rogers. The occassion was Sandy's 6th birthday celebration.

Stork Shower

Wednesday evening, February 9, Mrs. Jack Guilfoil was the honored guest at a surprise stork shower given at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson. The affair was attended by about 18 of Mrs. Guilfoil's neighbors, with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lou Larson as co-hostesses.

The Don Shaws entertained 7 couples at a buffet supper last Sunday following the Chicago Maternity center's annual cocktail dance at the Barrington Hills Country club. Mrs. Shaw serves on the board of the center.

Those of you who go to see "Cinderalla," the annual children's play given by the Village Theater group, will enjoy the performances of two Eastwood residents. Playing the role of Cinderella is Joan Edmonds, and Harriet Smith will portray the role of the stepmother. Both of these neighbors live on N. Brighton.

Tournament Scores

Now for the news on the bridge tournament scores. In first place we have Foster and Doris Travis with a score of 9890. In second place with 8870 are Herm and Dorothy Raasch. Bob and Lois Burrow are third with 8420, and very close in fourth place are Glenn and Grace Johnson. Two new members are Louise and Ben Yunker who reside on Dryden ave. They are taking the place of Charlie and Dorothy Barrett.

Next neighborhood meeting of South Arlington Heights girl scouts will be held at the home of Mrs. Maynard Whitelaw, 400 E. Park st., Wednesday, Feb. 16, at 9:30 a.m. All registered adults of the troops in this neighborhood are invited to attend to help plan the proposed father-daughter banquet in March.

Troop 1, an intermediate troop of sixth graders, completed their first troop badge February 1. It is the radio and television proficiency badge. At their meeting they presented a mock quiz broadcast on girl scout history and activities. This was an especially significant program, since they also invested three new intermediate girl scouts into troop 1 on that day, bringing their total number to 15 girls. New girl scouts are Josephine Alongi, Linda Gutierrez and Sara Geddes. Mrs. Kenneth Hood is leader of troop 1.

Troop 249, a fourth grade brownie troop of South school, has been busy planning for a Valentine party Tuesday, Feb. 15. The girls are responsible for the program, favors, and the refreshments. They are also having a roller skating party at the Arlington roller rink March 1 and extend an invitation to all brownie troops in the neighborhood to accompany them. Brownie leaders may contact Mrs. M. A. Hogate, leader of troop 249, if their girls are interested.

Troop 50, a second grade brownie troop of Dryden school went iceskating at the field house February 2. Many were on new or borrowed skates, but where skill was lacking, the "try-again" attitude prevailed. Mrs. William Ferry, the leader, and Mrs. A. L. Abrahamson and Mrs. Samuel Wit accompanied the girls.

The neighborhood leaders meeting of North Arlington Heights Girl Scouts will be held at 1:15 p.m. in the gymnasium of the Methodist church February 17. Mrs. Leonard Johns of Des Plaines will demonstrate techniques of square dancing and teach dances to troop leaders and committee members. Mrs. Johns is a neighborhood chairman in DesPlaines. Following the dancing "buzz" sessions will be conducted. Mrs. John Husky will lead the session for the intermediate troops and Mrs. John Crawford for the brownies. Crafts of the various troops will be displayed at the meeting.

Brownies of troop 296, accompanied by Mrs. T. P. Johnson, went through Meyer Dairy last Saturday.

Between projects troop 303 had a snow party in Wedgwood Terrace. Their current project is the mounting of the brownie promise.

Thursday is the Valentine party of troop 11. Mrs. Earl Esse is furnishing a surprise treat and will accompany the girls in singing.

The mothers of the girls of troop 23 will meet Thursday evening at 8 in the home of Mrs. George Sullivan 415 Windsor drive. At that time plans for the remainder of the year will be made.

Cold weather doesn't hold up excavation for Palatine swimming pool that the contractor has promised will be ready for operation this summer.

Communion Sunday For Wayside Men, Daughters

The Holy Name society men of Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights, have arranged a special treat for their daughters next Sunday morning at their monthly communion breakfast and meeting. John Goble, Chicago magician, will entertain the girls and their dads with his sleight of hand and will have toy gifts for the youngsters. The breakfast will be held in the Wayside school immediately following the 7 a.m. mass.

St. Peter Mothers' Club To Mark Birthday

St. Peter Mothers' club, Arlington Heights, will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, Feb. 11, at 8 p.m. in the activity building of the church.

The club will celebrate its 14th birthday with a party including entertainment, games and prizes. Mr. Rush will emcee and will also be the featured speaker at the business meeting. He will speak on "Phases of Physical Education in Our School."

With The Blue Birds

Arlington Heights blue bird groups participated in the 11 o'clock Youth Sunday service at First Presbyterian church last Sunday, together with explorer scouts, boy scouts, cub scouts, girl scouts and brownies from the community. Twenty blue birds and their leaders were in attendance.

The Honey Bears Blue Birds listened attentively to a short nature talk on caring for the birds during the winter season while constructing bird feeders at the Monday meeting. The girls also sang blue bird songs, and enjoyed treats served by Nancy Miles.

The Helping Pixies group concentrated on the making of valentines this past week. These valentines, along with party favors, will be the center of attraction February 14 when the girls will join the Honey Bears blue birds for a valentine get-together. Hostess for Tuesday's meeting was Lynn Maas.

Here's Idea To Stop 'Tracking In' Of Snow

The nuisance of cleaning tracked-in snow or mud from rugs and floors is a wintertime bugaboo for the housewife who hasn't taken precautions to avoid it.

The precautions should be more than simply placing a mat inside the door particularly the door of the back porch utility room or attached garage where the youngsters enter the house.

In these places, it's wise to put up a few handy plastic hooks on the wall near the back entrance of the house, whether it be in the utility room or garage or on the porch. On one of the hooks, hang a small whisk broom or brush ideal for cleaning snow off galoshes, coats and leggings.

Other hooks, of course, can hold snowsuits and galoshes, maybe even a snow shovel ready for dad's use.

Some of the new "stick 'em up" plastic hooks are suggested for this "Operation Snowtime" because they can be put on walls, or even doors, of porch, garage, or utility room without making any holes in the surfaces. There's no need to mar the walls or doors with nails or screws inasmuch as the new-style hooks, called Selfix, have their own adhesive-coated wood backing molded into the plactic.

To put up these hooks you simply moisten the adhesive with a few drops of water, work the adhesive into a gluey consistency, and press the hooks firmly in place. They'll adhere to any smooth surface—even glass or tile.

Barrington: 4797

Barrington has a population of 4,797 according to figures released recently from the interim census conducted last month. There are 187 more females in Barrington than male. Six of the females are non-whites.

Walther League To Present 3-Act Play February 19-20

"Goin' Modern," a 3-act comedy written by Dora Mary MacDonald, will be presened by St. Peter Walther League, Arlington Heights February 19 and 20, at 8 p.m. at the St. Peter auditorium. Lester Rush is directing the production.

"Goin' Modern" is a story of a comfortable, middle-aged couple, Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone, portrayed by Joe Pollard and Donna Siemro, whose son and daughter are about to return from a year in New York. The Livingstones are somewhat fearful that their old fashioned, easy-going ways will not meet with the approval of their modern off-springs. When the children, Sandy and J. C., played by Doris Rudolph and Bill Lippke, arrive, their fears are realized—they want mother and dad to turn the house into a "moderne" nightmare of interior decoration and to modernize their conduct. A house party, to which some of their New York friends have been invited, is to be the demonstration of the modernizing influence.

Other members of the cast are John Landmeier, Sharon Senne, Joe Horcher, Jerry Berg, Carol Lange, Ronald Becker, and Ruth Ruhnow.

Valentine Luncheon

St. James Catholic Mothers club Arlington Heights, will sponsor a luncheon and card party February 14 at the field house. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and canasta or bridge may be played later. Tickets are $1.25 and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Daniel Krebsbach, Clearbrook 3-4378, Mrs. John Huskey, Clearbrook 3-2011, or Mrs. Sam Ernst in Prospect Heights at Clearbrook 3-6424.

Schools —

Every school regardless of need receives $22 per pupil from the state.

That means $151 per pupil has been available in state aid.

In order to "qualify" for this aid, a school district must be levying a tax rate of more than 40 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Since it costs more than $173 per pupil, suburban districts are levying tax rates greatly in excess of 40 cents. Arlington Heights, for example, spends $240 per pupil.

This difference is made up in local taxes. The state, however, is not concerned with how much MORE than 40 cents the tax rate is.

A typical community starts off by receiving a grant of $22 per pupil. This leaves a guaranteed rate per pupil of $151. When multiplied by a town's pupils, this makes a total eligibility of $377,573 for 2,500 pupils.

Taxes (at 40 cents per assessed valuation) may produce $235,729. The difference of $141,844 is provided by the state.

The Illinois School Problems commission recommended raising both the foundation rate and qualifying rate.

This would rob county schools of some $786,000 in state aid because a greater portion of the expense would have to come from local taxing bodies, already hard-pressed to maintain minimum standards.

Heffernan said the commission has discarded these much-publicized changes and will probably agree to a continuation of the present level of $173 and 40 cents.

However, in order to meet future needs, there must be an increase in this aid, or the maximum tax rate of $1.12½ for local districts must be increased.

A second problem facing schools is the 18 month time lag in state aid payments.

The 1954-55 claim for example was filed last June on the basis of average daily attendance in the preceding year with payments starting this month.

That means aid is now 20 to 40 per cent behind real enrollment needs in such growing suburbs as Arlington Heights, which actually receives only $122 of its $173 guarantee.

To remedy this, Heffernan recommends that schools make enrollment estimates in September and begin receiving 75 per cent of that aid until the end of the year, when the balance would be paid.

This would remedy the lag and relieve the revenue shortage in mushrooming suburbs.

A third problem concerns the local assessment rates.

Assessor Keenan hinted recently he may reduce valuations on new homes in suburbs.

Heffernan said this would seriously curtail school revenue in residential areas many of which are almost entirely dependent upon property taxes for school funds.

It will help schools, however, if new homes are placed on the tax rolls as soon as they are completed.

At present, a family that waits until after April 1 to move in the home can send children tax free to local schools for almost two years.

"All citizens should take an active interest in county school needs," said Heffernan. "The situation is more critical than most people realize."

United Lutherans To Hold Congregational Meeting

All prospective members of the United Lutheran congregation of Arlington Heights, which will hold its formal organization service Sunday, Feb. 20, are urged to attend the first official business meeting of the congregation Wednesday, Feb. 16, at Dryden school at 8 p.m.

Among the items of business which will be voted upon by the membership are the selection of a name for the church, the adoption of the church constitution, and the election of a church council of nine members. Because of the importance of these decisions, it is hoped that all persons who will declare their membership on organization Sunday will be present. The Rev. George Hoog, organizing pastor of the church, will conduct the meeting.

Pastor Hoog has requested that letters of transfer from other congregations be secured as soon as possible, and that the names of all who wish to become charter members be given to him by Saturday noon, Feb. 19. Although the current series of instruction classes in preparation for church membership will be completed Sunday evening, individuals who wish their names to be included in the charter roll will still be accepted upon their signifying their intention to attend the next series of classes which will be formed immediately after organization Sunday.

At the final adult class Sunday evening, the first hour from 7 to 8 p.m. will be devoted to study of the structure of the United Lutheran church in America, and the second hour to a preliminary reading of the proposed constitution of the new congregation. An invitation is extended to all members of the church to attend this study meeting.

Plans are being completed this week for the service of organization February 20, and for social event scheduled for the evening of that day in celebration of the occasion. A committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carns, Mr. and Mrs. John Pfingsten and Mr. and Mrs. Don Petelle, are at work on arrangements for the evening.

A service of holy communion Ash Wednesday, Feb. 23, will mark the beginning of the Lenten observance at the United Lutheran church. Midweek Lenten services will be held each Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Dryden school with Pastor Hoog delivering the Lenten meditation.

Grants Scholarship

Arlington Heights Nurses' club announces it has granted a $300 annual scholarship which will be granted to a student from Arlington Heights high school to enter a school of nursing.

Newcomers Complete Valentine Dance Plans

Arlington Heights Newcomers' club has made final preparations for its Valentine dance to be held this Friday evening, Feb. 11, at Arlington Country club. Music for dancing will be furnished by the "Captivators" with dancing beginning at 9 p.m.

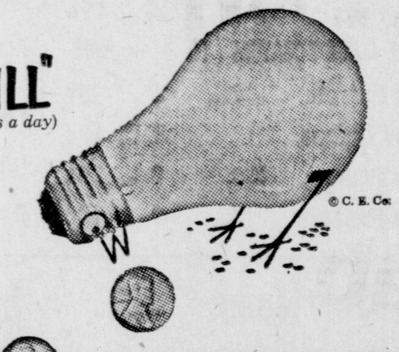
BIG BILL THE COST-OF-LIVING BIRD

(He's twice as big as he was 25 years ago)

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY'S "LITTLE BILL"

(He still costs you pennies a day)



© C. E. Co.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down

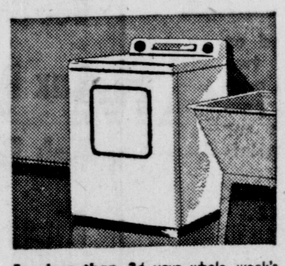
(while everything else goes up)

Cost of living has doubled, but electricity, your taken-for-granted lifeline to better living, actually costs you less per kilowatthour than it did 25 years ago.

One of the ways Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down is by planning tomorrow's power supply. For instance, we have a miniature electric system with which our engineers can calculate a new neighborhood's power needs 5, 8, even 10 years ahead. That way, we know what kind of lines to use and where to locate them to bring you better service for less.

So today, while you're using far more electricity than 25 years ago, you're getting almost twice as much of it for your money.

Less than 1¢ is all it takes for electricity to make 8 cups of coffee and 8 pieces of toast for your breakfast.



For less than 3¢ your whole week's wash is done in your work-saving automatic electric washer. Saves time, too.

Name Chairmen For Red Cross In This Area

Local chairmen have been named by Louis E. Nelson, county communities chairman for the 1955 Red Cross Fund campaign to head the local drive in nine suburban communities, and to carry the Red Cross appeal for $3,100,000 in the Chicago chapter area to family residences and business houses in their local communities.

Those appointed are:

Bensenville — John Duerkop, 205 Main st., Bensenville, chairman.

Bloomingdale — Mrs. Charles Picton, Box 105, Bloomingdale, chairman, and Miss Marie O'Patkiewicz, Arm, Trail rd., Bloomingdale, co-representative.

Cloverdale — Mrs. Arthur Benson, Rte. 1, Bartlett, chairman.

Itasca — Mrs. Edward H. Marwig, 107 E. Center st., Itasca, chairman.

Keeneyville — Mrs. Henry Harberts, R. R. 1, Roselle, chairman.

Mount Prospect — Harold W. Meyer, 415 S. I-Oka, Mount Prospect, chairman, and Carl Hammerl, Bank of Mt. Prospect, 312 S. George st., co-chairman.

Palatine — Mrs. Fred Hohenhorst, 44 S. Ashland, Palatine, chairman.

Roselle — Mrs. Rita Butler, 117 W. Elm st., Roselle, chairman.

Wood Dale— Bernard Lee, Harvey st., Wood Dale, chairman.

THE CHAIRMEN will head a corps of fund volunteers for the month-long campaign which begins March 1, and which will be carried to all parts of the Chicago Red Cross chapter area, comprising all parts of Cook and DuPage counties and the south half of Lake county.

In making the appointments, Nelson noted that last year was one of the worst disaster years in the history of Red Cross. In the Chicago area alone, he said, 1,967 victims of 361 disasters were given aid. Hurricanes Carol, Edna, and Hazel required the American National Red Cross to spend $2,470,000 in giving emergency aid to 51,000 victims, and long-term aid to 5,800 families, Nelson stated.

Nelson explained that Red Cross is the link between more than 3,000,000 servicemen, stationed throughout the world, and their families at home. He noted that the Chicago Chapter alone handled 45,513 such cases, involving servicemen, veterans, and their dependents, last year. About 40 per cent of the Chicago Chapter's budget goes toward this sort of work, he stated.

In The Future

If your zippers stick when they return from the laundry or the dry cleaner's, a new zipper lubricant, spread on with a little wheel, may be what you need ... Robert's Rules of Order have been reduced, as far as possible, to slide rule form. A presiding officer can match up eight basic questions about 36 possible motions, and read off whether the member is out of order or whether a question can be debated or must be voted upon at once ... A soap dish substitute consists of one magnet to be affixed to the bathroom, another to be shoved into the cake of soap ... This summer it will be possible to get a lawn sprinkler which will turn the water on and off while you are on your vacation.

Burlington Orders Railroad Cars

Burlington railroad has placed an order for 10 new stainless steel air-conditioned gallery cars for its suburban run.

Similar in design to the 40 gallery cars already in service, the new double-deck type coaches will be built by the Budd company and delivered in the last quarter of 1955.

The Burlington has also streamlined its suburban service by dieselization of trains, air-conditioned coaches with closed vestibules, modern lighting, and new seats, as well as technical advancements which have speeded service.

The railroad carries 19,000 commuters twice daily

Favorites For Flavor

A delicacy which makes excellent party fare is the French pastry we are featuring today.

The recipe for Peanut Squares is being shared with us by Mrs. Lloyd J. Derus. Many, many years ago her mother received this recipe from a Frenchwoman, and she often made these squares and sent them to her eldest son, who was stationed in England during World War I. They were always fresh when he received them, which is evidence that they will remain delicate and delicious for at least two weeks.

Mrs. Derus also sent these pastries to friends in World War II, with the same satisfying results. She has served them with success at showers, and they are also excellent for teas or as a luncheon or dinner dessert.

To make these Peanut Squares, a light-textured white cake is baked and when cool, cut into squares. The squares are frosted on all six sides with a dreamy butter icing and rolled in crushed peanuts.

Coconut may be substituted for the peanuts, if desired. These dainties may take some fussing to prepare, but the result will be a rewarding gustatory pleasure, especially luscious when accompanied with ice cream.

The Derus family lives at 501 N. Douglas in Arlington Heights. They have two children, Mary Alice, 11½, a student at St. James, and David, who is celebrating his fifth birthday today. Music is Mrs. Derus' hobby, and both she and her daughter take piano lessons.

Peanut Squares

1¼ cups sifted cake flour
1½ teaspoons double action baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup shortening
½ cup milk
1 egg
½ teaspoon vanilla

Sift dry ingredients together.

Cream shortening and add flour mixture with one-fourth cup milk. Beat two minutes.

Add egg, vanilla and remaining one-fourth cup milk. Beat one minute longer.

Pour batter into an 8 by 8 inch greased tin. Bake in 375 degree oven for 20 minutes or until done. Let cake cool.

Shell one pound of roasted peanuts. Put peanuts through meat grinder, using fine blade. Then make a butter frosting by combining:

2½ cups confectioners sugar
1/3 cup soft butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
5 to 6 tablespoons cream

Cut cake into squares, one inch by two inches. Take cake squares and hold between index finger and thumb of left hand. Frost all four sides. Roll in crushed peanuts, then frost remaining two sides and roll again in crushed nuts.

Makes 32 squares.

A message may be left for her by calling Clearbrook 3-8624. Any help will be deeply appreciated.

Special Thank You

Last week in listing the names of Little League boys who had worked so hard to deliver the Little League dance bulletins, the name of Jan Christensen was inadvertently omitted. The work which Jan did in assisting this distribution was appreciated and the organization renders him a special apology and thank you.

Card Club Hostess

Mrs. Shirley Cook of 2309 Bluebird ln. was hostess to her card club Tuesday, February 1. On hand for the evening of card playing were Millie Braiske, Wanda Coffaro, Dolores Szwiec, and Shirley Valentine. The regular members felt very fortunate to have as substitutes for the evening Yvonne Nickols, Shirley Roeing and Marilin Sitka. Coffee and refreshments were served later in the evening.

Little Leaguers to Canvass Homes Sunday

Sunday afternoon, February 13, starting at 2 p.m. the entire Little League organization will begin a unified canvass of every home in Rolling Meadows to make it possible for everyone who has not yet purchased dance tickets to do so. A public address system will announce the group's arrival on your street. For those who have not been at home on our call-backs, this will be your last opportunity to obtain tickets for the first annual Little League dance to be held Saturday evening, February 26, at the Edison Park Legion Post 541 in Edison Park. Following the canvass, Mr. Jim Service of Jim's Service Station, a Little League sponsor, has consented to sell the remaining tickets. The way tickets are selling to date, there will not be too many left for Mr. Service to sell. Plan a group or even a block party and join the community celebration.

Maternity Corner

Due to the large number of Rolling Meadows housewives expecting a visit from the stork in the near future, plans have been made for this group at the first Little League dance. Tables and chairs will be arranged for the convenience of these ladies so if they desire they may sit together.

Anniversary Celebration

Friday, February 4, was the date of the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coffaro of 2505 Fremont st. In honor of the event the Coffaro family entertained as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Donald Early and their daughters Elyce and Sherry of Chi-

Dates for Junior Women's Club Meetings Announced

A special Board meeting of the officers of the Rolling Meadows Junior Women's club will be held in the home of the club president, Mrs. Renee Jaremus of Eastman st., Thursday evening, February 10. The board meeting will be devoted to a discussion of the program and agenda for the regular monthly club meeting Monday, February 14.

The Junior Women's club has extended an invitation to every woman in Rolling Meadows over the age of 18 to attend the regular monthly meeting of the club February 14, at 8:30 p.m. at The Barn on Kirchhoff rd. The club, which is dedicated to community service and philanthropic work, invites you to join them for the meeting and for the social period later.

Girl Scouts Programs

Both Rolling Meadows Girl Scout troops held special programs last week. Troop 302, under the direction of Mrs. Gretchen White, held a "Mothers Night" last Wednesday evening, February 2. The girls presented a costume play "How the Girl Scout Laws Were Written," in which all the troop members participated. The girls acted as hostesses to their mothers and served cocoa and cookies. Some cookies were made by the girls themselves and some were made available through the generosity of their mothers. Further entertainment consisted of special songs and several games.

Tuesday, February 1, the "Parents Night" was held by the Girl Scout troop under the supervision of Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan and Mrs. Evelyn Jesperson. The highlight of the evening's events was a special amateur show in which all the girls participated. The show featured ten different acts consisting of songs, acrobatic acts, dances and other musical renditions. Scout Dorothy Stier acted as mistress of ceremonies for the evening. More than 65 people were on hand for the event. Another feature of the evening was the presentation to the troop of an American flag and a troop flag by the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association. The presentation was made by Wing Groves and Pete Keller, president and vice president of that organization. Other special guests on hand for Parents Night were Mrs. Irene Sharples, chairman of the Girl Scout Neighborhood association in Rolling Meadows, and Rev. Nelson Ringsmuth of the Community church, sponsoring organization for the troop. Girls of the troop were divided into three work crews for the night — cooks, hostesses and "clean-ups." All of the cakes were made by the girls themselves, as well as special imitation carnation centerpieces and corsages for their mothers. During the evening an appeal was made for volunteers to serve on the troop committee, and several responses were made. Following the regular program the Girl Scouts demonstrated several of their games and songs for their parents and guests. They proudly closed the evening by giving a color guard ceremony with their new flags which they had just received.

Home Demonstration Party

January 24, Mrs. Marie Langhoff of 2300 Sigwalt st. was hostess at a home demonstration party. Following the demonstration, she served coffee and refreshments to her 17 guests, and a pleasant social period was had by all.

Community Church

Tuesday, February 15, there will be a staff meeting of Sunday School teachers at The Barn. There will be a special speaker on hand, and a report will be given by those members of the group who attended the National Council of Religious Education in Cincinnati.

Residents are strongly urged to devote as much time as they possibly can in volunteer work at The Barn in preparation for "Charter Sunday," February 20. It is hoped as much work as possible can be completed before that date since at that time many visiting dignitaries from the Church Federation of Greater Chicago, the Midwest Community Church Development association, other local churches, as well as representatives of many community organizations in the surrounding area will be on hand for the evening "Charter Prentation" program which will officially establish the Rolling Meadows Community church.

Prize Winner

A real prize-winner and very aptly called a "personality baby" is Danny Dahlquist the two month old son of Don and Nancy Dahlquist of 2506 Sigwalt st. Little Danny, whose happy smile is a replica of his father's, recently had his picture taken at a large studio in Chicago. The resulting picture was so outstanding he was chosen as one of the "personality babies" of the month. His parents will receive a 16" x 20" framed picture of him after it has been displayed in the studio show case downtown in Chicago.

Observe Scout Week

A picturesque and stimulating beginning was given to "Scout Week" in Rolling Meadows last Sunday, February 6, at the morning worship service of the Community church. It was "Scout Sunday" and the entire worship service was dedicated to Scouting and its principles.

Rev. Nelson Ringsmuth gave his sermon on "Be Prepared" the Scout motto. Rolling Meadows Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts attended the service wearing their full uniforms and sat together in special groups with their den mothers, cubmaster and scout representatives.

Highlight of the service was the presentation of the Cub Pack Charter to Pack 68 of Rolling Meadows, which is sponsored by the Rolling Meadows Community church. The presentation was made by Russell Young, district commissioner of the Signal Hill district, who was also present at the service in full uniform.

The charter was accepted on behalf of the Cub Pack by John Walker, institutional representative. Certificates of office and identification cards were also presented to Leif Maseng, cubmaster, and LaVerne Sladek, Eleanor Keller, Grace Martin and Myrla Garrity, den mothers, as well as members of the cub pack committee.

A special Boy Scout and Cub Scout color guard presented colors during the service, and Leif Maseng led the responsive reading.

Satinover, professional leader of the lay leadership training course, and members of her Group II class gave a practical demonstration of a class in session. They had chosen "Learning to live with Television" as the subject, and using several little skits to illustrate possible problems, each member of the class gave her considered opinion on how such problems could be handled.

After the class demonstration, Ethel Kawin, director, Parent Education project, University of Chicago, spoke, giving 10 reasons why lay leadership in parent education is important. At 12:15 the assembly left Farewell hall to split into four groups to discuss various phases of parent education, and returned to Farewell hall at 1:45 with questions for the panel in the last section of the day's program.

Note of Thanks

Mrs. Vera Valentine would like to pass along a few words to many Meadowites. Since her "writing arm" is still mending, she asked us to put those words down for her.

Her accident was a major calamity but it was not without rewards. Vera learned she had an abundance of friends and thoughtful neighbors in a generous community. Vera wants to express her "individual" thanks for all the cards, gifts, flowers, and help. She tells us that her children have been cared for; she has been driven to and from the doctor and the hospital; and countless offers of help have been received. She thinks the folks of Prospect Meadows are wonderful!

Here's Scouting

With Explorer Scout Bill Hogate

Camp-Out Headed 36-136 Weekend Slate

George Adam, Scoutmaster of Troop 36, Prospect Heights, sponsored by the Prospect Heights Improvement association, announced that a camp-out at Camp Baden-Powell, Des Plaines, would be held last Saturday. At the present time Troop 36 and Post 136 are working on advancement and First Aid, in preparation for the District First Aid Meet. First Aid demonstrations were a highlight at this overnight, as well as many other Scouting skills. Over 20 boy scouts and their leaders camped overnight in capbins and tents.

Members of Post 136 held a bowling party January 29, at the Palatine bowling lanes, which was attended by 11 Explorers, Post 136, under the competent leadership of Explorer Advisor, Wilfred B. Colmar, is also planning a window display during Scout Week in Jacobson's Variety Store, in Prospect Heights. Colmar also reminds Prospect Heights residents that there will be a paper drive in Prospect Heights, February 20.

Prospect Heights will have its 1955 Boy Scout Finance drive Sunday, February 13, Here's Scouting hopes that Prospect Heights, like all the other communities in this area, give generously to this worthwhile cause.

Where To Look For Window Displays

Traditionally each year, during Scout Week, many Scouting units in this area organize and demonstrate window displays depicting some phase of Scouting. In Arlington Heights the public can see Troop 7's window in Neumann's Barber shop, Troop 32's display in Gieseke's department store, Troop 37's display in the Ace Hardware and Troop 36-136's window in Jacobson's Variety store, Prospect Heights.

District First Aid Meet Round The Corner! Test Yourself!

The Blackhawk District First Aid Meet isn't too far off now, and all of the Units in this area are preparing for it. Test yourself on the following:

A man is found bleeding badly from a wound in his leg. The blood is bright red and expelling in spurts. In addition to contacting a doctor—one would apply pressure.

(a) above the wound
(b) below the wound
(c) on the wound
(d) no pressure at all to stop the flow of blood.

A man is found slumped at the bottom of a staircase with no apparent external injury—besides notifying a doctor, one would immediately proceed to

(a) place him in bed
(b) sling him over shoulder and carry him to doctor's office
(c) carry him nowhere and make sure he is comfortable until the arrival of the doctor

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Healing through spiritual means as practiced by Christ Jesus will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday, February 13.

The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Soul," a word which, when capitalized, is used in Christian Science as one of the synonyms for God. The Bible selections include: "And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them (Matthew 15:30).

Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be the following (210:11-16): "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

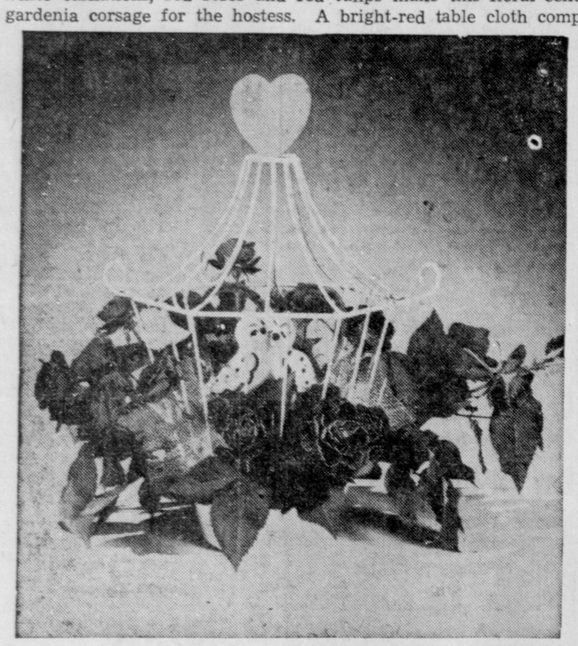
The trick for your valentine table setting is to make it resemble a living valentine. White carnations, red roses and red tulips make this floral centerpiece. Pinned to the heart is a gardenia corsage for the hostess. A bright-red table cloth completes the party picture.



Novel arrangement of roses in bird-cage is a setting for your St. Valentine's party table, or perched atop the television receiver. Ceramic love-birds are posed in front of red chenille heart. Roses are stemmed in water-absorbent product in shallow white bowl.

"HER FIRST ORCHID" is entwined with a valentine heart shaped with satin. "To a beautiful lady," is exclusively the voice of the orchid in the language of flowers.

Uncover Vote Frauds In Chicago, Suburbs

Fraudulent vote casting in the 1954 election in Chicago and suburbs was revealed this week by Harriet M. Robertson, president of the Women's Civic council.

She said tabulations showing illegal overcasting of votes in many precincts are evidence of widespread dishonesty in vote counting.

In many precincts and wards, the total vote for rival candidates was larger than the number of persons who signed applications for ballots.

This was true in voting machine precincts as well as in places where paper ballots were used.

The survey covered most of the city and some suburbs, and showed that crediting of candidates with more votes than were cast was not confined to so-called river wards.

Chicago Ready For Evacuation If Necessary

Civil defense officials issued a reminder recently that plans for the evacuation of Chicago are all prepared.

Four collection and transfer points and five air evacuation points, 26 evacuation collecting centers and ten evacuation staging centers are listed in the Illinois State civil Defense plan, the Chicago Civil Defense Corps Coordinator, Pat Kelly, pointed out.

The four ground collection and transfer points are at Lincoln village, U.S. 41 and Kedzie ave.; Maywood Park race track, Ill. 64 and Fifth ave.; the intersection of U.S. 45 and U.S. 66 south of La Grange, and the Washington Park race track, at Halsted and 175th sts.

The air collection and transfer points are the Palwaukee airport, Palatine rd. and Milwaukee ave.; Rubinkam airport, 167th and California; Elmhurst airport, Lake st. and West ave.; Joliet Municipal airport and the Chicago-Hammond airport, 190th and Burnhan ave.

Evacuation collecting centers are on U.S. 6 at Lansing, on Ill. 1 at Crete; four locations around Lockport, and 20 other spots as far from Chicago as Oswego, Wauconda and Sugar Grove.

In the event of an atomic air raid on Chicago, civil defense officials plan to use Waukegan, Elgin, Aurora, Wheaton, Joliet, Kankakee, St. Charles, Geneva, Momence and Crystal Lake as staging centers for the hundreds of thousands of people evacuated from Chicago.

Approximately $16,000,000 will be spent this year, which is an increase of nearly $2,00,000 over 1954 expenditures.

The HUNGRY SPORTSMAN By Eddie Meier

Ruddy Duck
A La Cuban

The breasts of four ruddy ducks—perhaps you know them as bristletail, butterball, broadbill dipper, apiketail, chuck duck, or any of two dozen other names—are the basic ingredients for this recipe, which is one of our favorites.

Fry out 2 oz. salt pork in a cast iron skillet and then saute until transparent 1 small onion which has been chopped fine. Remove salt prok and onion and set aside.

Dredge the ruddy duck breasts in seasoned flour and brown quickly in the hot fat. Reduce heat, add the salt prok and onions, 1 six-oz. can mushroom steak sauce, 3 oz. rum, a pinch of oregano, ¼ teaspoon parsley flakes and 1 cup water. Cover skillet and simmer 1 hour.

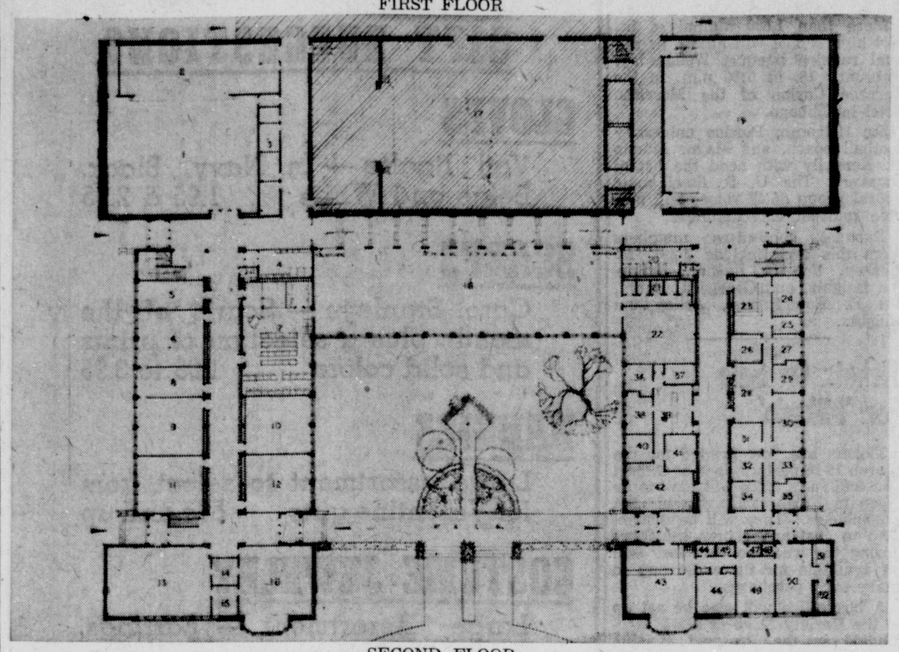
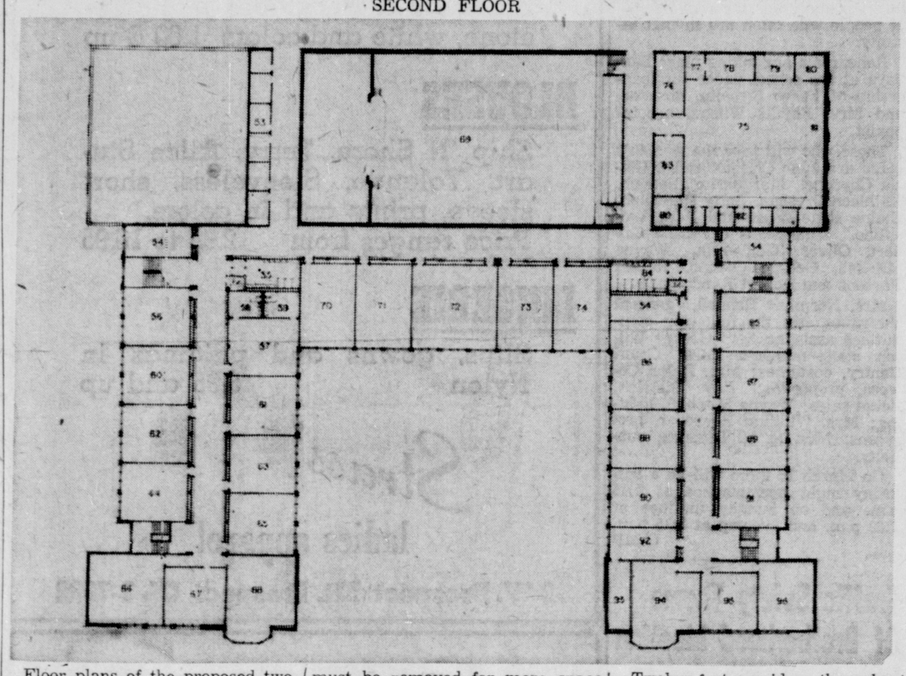
High School Addition Floor Plans

FIRST FLOOR



SECOND FLOOR



Floor plans of the proposed two-wing, two-story addition to the high school on Euclid St. in Arlington Heights show details of the 84,000 sq. ft. project announced last week.

Existing parts of the building to which the addition will be tied are shaded with the present girls gymnasium (17) in the center. Clear areas are those to be constructed, increasing the total student capacity to a maximum of 2,500.

THE TWO wings extending south toward Euclid St. are essentially academic. All space in the wings will be devoted to classrooms except for the first floor of the east wing which will be primarily office space. This area from which the second building proposed for Foundry rd. will also be directed is less than the five per cent of the total space in the complete plant which is normally set aside for the operation of a single school.

Departments to be housed in the two wings and the classroom space above the new library include English, common learnings, mathematics, art and business. Realignment of departments in this way will not only provide more space where needed, but will also make possible a more efficient space utilization and school organization throughout the building as a whole.

The library (18), occupying the center of the building between the wings and immediately in front of the present girls' gym, will provide adequate book storage and study space for the expanded enrollment. The present library in the basement will be converted to study halls. To the right on the floor plan is a library work room and to the left are quarters for reading development instruction.

AREA (1) to the left of the girls' gymnasium will be devoted to audiovisual work in a variety of subjects, speech and dramatic classes, and lectures for groups too large for single classrooms. The present, temporary, stage in the cafeteria must be removed for more space there.

The corresponding space (19) to the right will provice additional facilities for girls physical education on the first floor. Although not a part of the girls' gym nor equipped as such, it will have access to the girls' showers and locker room. The second story immediately above will house the band and instrumental music department which must be moved from the stage of the new gym to make room for additional boys' physical education classes.

Twelve foot corridors throughout the new addition will tie-in with those of the old building and provide much more effective movement on both floors than heretofore. Lockers will be recessed in the walls.

The net increase in space will be thirty-three classrooms or their equivalents exclusive of the library, multi-purpose room, and girls' physical education room. Construction is expected to start in June of this year with completion before the start of school in September 1956.

Heights Students Exchange Art Work With German Pupils

Art students of Arlington Heights high school are conducting an exchange of art with students of Neustadt, Germany, a suburb of Berlin.

Twenty examples of local student art were mailed last week. German art examples are expected in March, and will be displayed, for the student body.

In selecting the work to be sent in the exchange, Ed Fischer, art instructor, sought primarily work that depicted life in this community, although some abstract drawings, advertising art, and book illustrations were included.

The exchange was arranged by the Daubers club with the cooperation of Dolores Hudson, former language teacher at Arlington Heights, who is now teaching in Germany on an exchange program.

Harmonettes Win Third

Members of the Harmonettes, a girls' choral group from Arlington Heights high school, received a thrill last Sunday, when they appeared on the Morris B. Sachs Amateur Hour for the awarding of their third place prize for the previous week's show.

Each of the twelve girls in the group received a watch and the group received three dozen red roses, gifts of Morris B. Sachs, sponsor of the show.

Girls in the group are Ada Kilbury, Pat Tessar, Dianne Kowal, Caryle Sanders, Pat Molumby, Joanne Beatty, Wendy Farmer, Charlene Sorensen, Kay Whitelaw, Nancy Wintergerst, Margo Mates, and Lynn Heberling.

LAST FRIDAYS basketball games had some odd features. Ela-Vernon knocked off Palatine the week before and then let down to lose to last place Grayslake, which led all the way, Palatine held Grant scoreless in the third period, and for a total of 12 minutes, and ran up a streak of 29 points to Grant's two over 14 minutes. All this came with Grant leading, 20-17.

Then there was the big scoring in the Antioch-Glenbrook tussle with Haviland getting 16 field goals and Boyd 15, and neither of them making a point on free throws.

It was the third time this season Bob Boyd has scored 30 points. He now leads the league by a 15 point margin with 245 and just three games to go against Palatine, Grant and Wauconda.

It seems like tournament pairings inevitably match teams which are meeting in the regular schedule just before the tourney. This week Palatine and Glenbrook will have a preview of their tournament first round, and so will Wauconda and Ela-Vernon in the opposite bracket.

ONE RECORD WAS BROKEN at the Arlington- LaGrange game Friday night, with another one almost set by the Cardinals' Bill Randag. Randag parted the nets for 11 baskets and 11 charities for 33 points, just two short of the floor record 35 set by Anderson of York just couple of weeks ago.

Then, too, the Heights five set a new high in points for a losing team with 71, beating the old mark set by New Trier in that 73-70 sectional contest two years ago.

Optimistic fans at Arlington are pointing to the improvement in their varsity team, including the two 3 point losses to league-leading Downers and LaGrange the past two weekends. We know there has been improvement in floor play, maturity and confidence. Just how that improvement will fare in remaining four games, plus the tournament, remains to be seen.

ONE CHANGE that may be made in next year's Paddock Publications bowling tournaments is elimination of handicap limits. At the suggestion of several members of lower average teams, tourney sponsors have polled bowling alley proprietors and the ABC submitting averages and scores of the past four tournaments.

Eliminating the limit seemed to be unanimous. Such policy this year would have changed a couple of teams in the money, but Haseman Truckers would still have won.

Actually, highest handicap on any team in this year's tournament would have been under 600, not too great an obstacle for the top average 850-900 teams. Twenty of the 42 teams in this year's men's tournament received the limit on handicap, a healthy percentage, in our opinion.

But keeping bowlers happy has always been number one on the Paddock tournament parade, and if eliminating handicap limits will make more bowlers happy, we're all for it.

W. R. Bremser, manager of tournament sanctions department of the ABC, recommends "keep the handicap at a 70 per cent level, but take off the limit of 500 pins per team . . . you will not hurt anyone too badly by doing so, and you may satisfy several of the teams who feel it is quite unfair." If limits are removed, that policy will be followed in both men's and women's tourneys.

Another suggestion being considered is that of two Roselle leagues, bowling at Glen Ellyn and Elgin, which feel because all bowlers live in Roselle, part of the immediate area served by Paddock Publications, they should be permitted to compete. "You let us play in your golf tourney, why not bowling?" was the question asked. How about it, bowlers?

GOOD NEWS for high school golfers in the suburban area is the action of the Illinois state high school association board of directors, which will add another district tournament to the Chicago Suburban area this spring. Last year Arlington Heights lost out by a few points to Hinsdale, who went on to win the state.

Too many very good golf teams in the suburbs do not get to the state while much poorer ones represent other sections of the state. The next step should be to add another district track meet to this area.

There is a strong movement on to limit the state tournament to four or eight teams in place of the traditional 16. There has been enough sentiment so that the state board is seriously considering an eight team tournament for 1956. The best argument we can give in favor of the "Sweet Sixteen" is that if it is reduced it will mean that fewer of the powerful teams will

by G. A. McELROY

There are only three games remaining for each Northwest team on their 14 game schedule as all eight members square off Friday night with some natural rivalries adding much interest to the schedule. Palatine, which had 200 Northbrook students enrolled in the 1952-53 school year, will play against some of those same boys Friday at Glenbrook.

It is win or get out of the race for Palatine, which must win all remaining games, including the big one next week at Antioch in order to get a tie for first place.

Glenbrook has won only three games, but has had a high scoring team capable of giving every opponent a real run for the money. In their earlier meeting Palatine did not gain the winning edge until late in the game and Friday will be up against a very potent scoring combination in Bob Boyd, Ken Schulties, and Sheldon Spalding.

Glenbrook's new boy Bob Ritchy, six-foot-eight center, will be depended on to take away some of the edge rangy Dave Nesset and Dave Schutz have given the Pirates. Glenbrook's soph team, tied for second place, will be mighty tough for Palatine and may jolt the Pirates as they did earlier in the season.

BENSENVILLE has given every team a real battle on the home court. Antioch coming to DuPage county Friday will be looking ahead to the Palatine game Feb. 18, and may not take the Bisons too seriously.

Both Bensenville and Grant are different teams entirely when they play on their own small courts.

It would be a poor time for Antioch to be off their game. Johnson, Cheze, Heinrichs, Masotti, and Sirotzki will be primed to stage an upset. Anything can happen and frequently does in basketball.

A NEIGHBORHOOD feud in which Ela-Vernon always seems to win the football, will have third place at stake as the Bears are hosts to Wauconda in basketball Friday. Wauconda won with a late rally when they met before. Ela should bounce back with a vengeance from last week's upset at Grayslake. The same teams are scheduled to meet in the first round of the Glenbrook regional tournament 18 days later.

The other Northwest game finds Grant entertaining Grayslake. The latter may have gained the confidence to whip Grant from last week's conquest of Ela. The 87 points Grant scored on Grayslake in the first meeting will be a liability to Grant Friday when the Rams try for revenge. Grant's unusual success on their home court stamps them as the favorite in this clash for 7th and 8th place.

SATURDAY NIGHT Palatine takes Zion-Benton of the North Suburban conference in inter-league games. Zion has not been having a very successful season. Neither has Palatine against non-league competition though they have won 9 of 11 league games. Palatine has so far dropped 5 decisions in 7 games outside the conference, losing to Arlington Hts., Barrington, Maine, West Aurora, and Hampshire while beating Dundee and Libertyville.

The frosh-soph game starts at 7:15 while the varsity fives will square off at about 8:40.

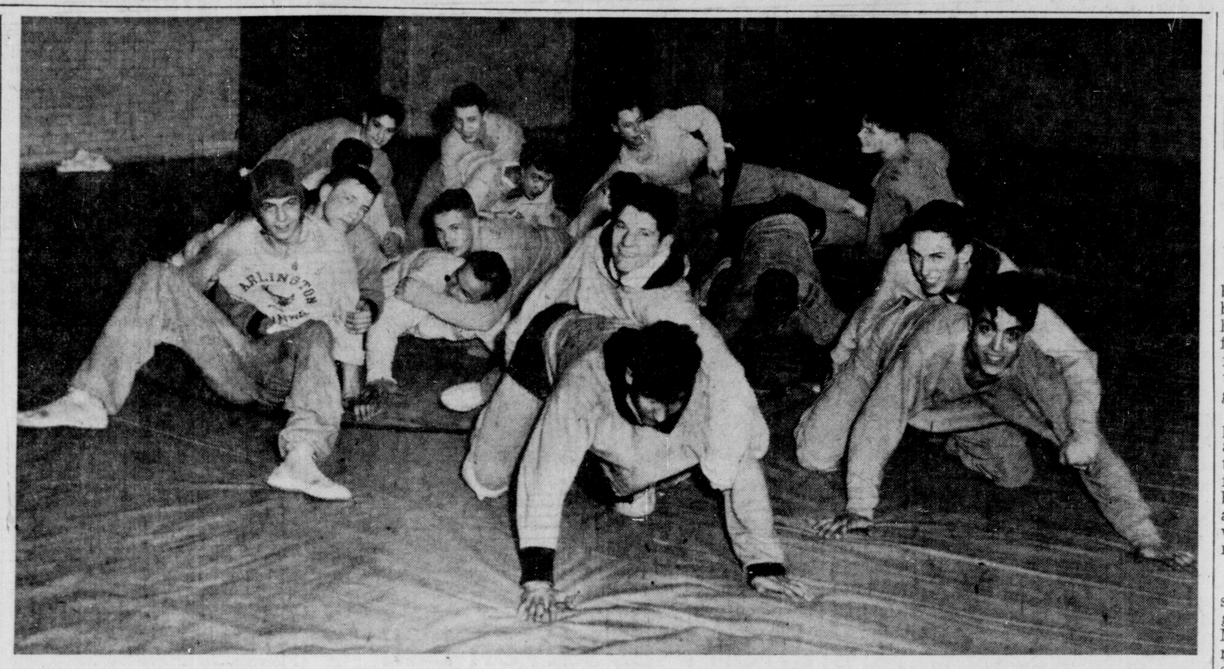
Thursday, Feb. 17, sectional wrestling tournament at Waukegan, 7:00.



Going through drills preparing for the final two duals with Hinsdale and Zion-Benton this week are Arlington Heights high school westlers. Both matches will be at Heights with local fans reminded these are the last times the locals can be seen on the home mats this year.

In the front row, leading drills, are Al Rose (with helmet) and Wally Mulso. Ken Bredfeldt (head down) and Vic Carlino, and Floyd Burns and John Heintz (front and back), all in the front row. All but Rose are seniors, and have been the backbone of Arlington's most successful season.

Missing from the picture is another consistent winner, Bruce Wilkerson. Other senior with the varsity is Ken Piepenbrink, a boy who has had rough competition at his weight, and hasn't seen too much action as a result. —Staff Photo

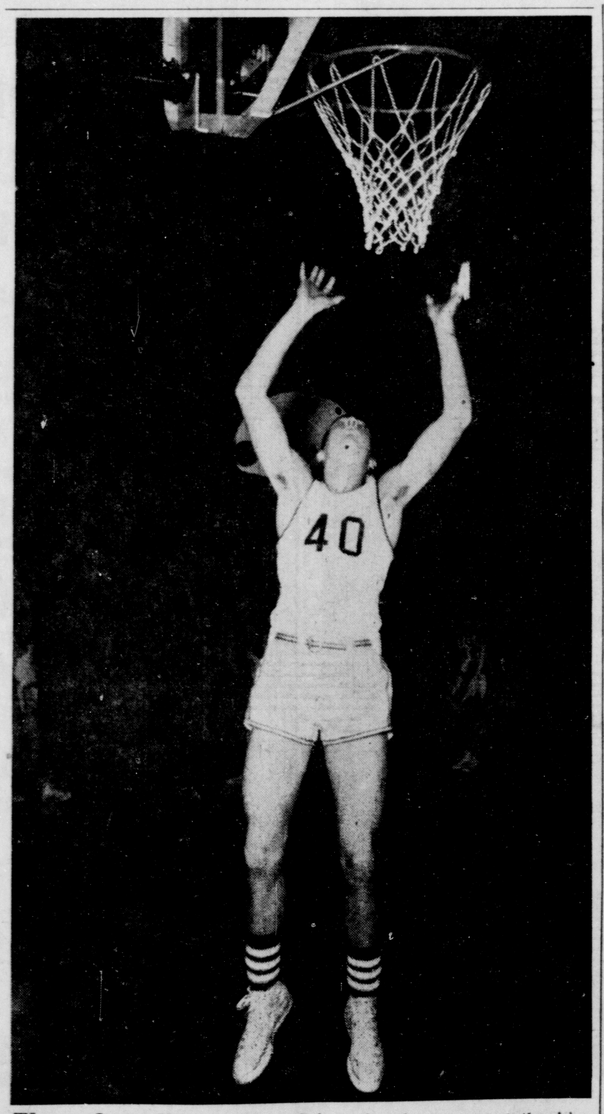
New Trier, Arlington, Rated 1-2 In Sectional Wrestling



The rebounding of Dave Schutz has been one of the big reasons Palatine is in the running at this late date for the league championship against the veteran Antioch team. Schutz has been a consistent scorer and one of the best in Palatine history at taking rebounds off the boards. He has averaged close to 15 points a game for the season. —Staff Photo

High school fans wearing Cardinal and White of Arlington Heights are thumping the drums for their wrestlers, pointing at one loss in umpteen duals this year, a 28-14 decision to LaGrange.

They're pointing to Heights wins over every respectable team in next week's Waukegan sectional tournament, ending with last week's decision over New Trier.

To them it's only a matter of where to put the school's first sectional championship trophy.

BUT IT'S NOT that simple as the short fingernails of Colleen Mudge will attest. Colleen is the wife of Coach Dick Mudge, the gal who sits on the sidelines pulling for victory, perhaps harder than anyone else.

It's true Arlington beat New Trier. It's true the Cardinals found Waukegan and Evanston easy marks. And it's true Niles, Glenbrook and Maine were also victims of Arlington's strongest wrestling aggregation in history.

BUT PROOF of the pudding is in the making. What some fans at the high school level forget is that in the lower weights where New Trier is strongest, there is no serious competition. While in the weights where Heights might take firsts, some of the strongest boys from other schools are entered, boys who could reduce Heights to seconds and thirds while New Trier cops firsts at other weights.

Therein lies the big question mark. New Trier and Arlington are definitely rated favorites in the meet, but whether the Heights lads can come through as hoped will decide if there'll be a first place trophy, and a trip downstate, to fight over.

Proviso and Oak Lawn knocked out many New Trier boys in the Waukegan holiday tournament, giving Arlington a chance to edge ahead of New Trier in final standings. But Proviso and Oak Lawn will be wrestling elsewhere next week, and the Heights grapplers will be on their own.

THE WEIGHTS stack up about as follows, with "favored sons" rated first:

95—Hubbard of New Trier, then Ralph Carlino of Arlington and Wright of Niles.

103—Vic Carlino of Arlington and Boller of Waukegan. Carlino was hurt tobogganing last weekend and may not wrestle this week against Hinsdale and Zion-Benton, certain to be ready for the sectional.

112—Martinson of New Trier, Bruce of Waukegan, Seeley of Maine.

120—T. Morrison of New Trier, Van Dellen of Evanston.

127—Kraft of New Trier.

133—BRAUN of Glenbrook, Ken Bredfeldt of Arlington.

138—Borre of Glenbrook, Kelly of New Trier, Owens of Evanston, Jack Ebert of Arlington.

145—Wally Mulso of Arlington, Matlock of Waukegan.

154—John Heintz of Arlington, Fox of Evanston.

165—Will of New Trier, Onan of Waukegan, Floyd Burns of Arlington.

175—Sproule of New Trier, Christakis of Waukegan, Al Rose of Arlington.

Hvy—Salata of Waukegan, Pyle of New Trier, Bruce Wilkerson of Arlington.

Need More Boys For Boys' Baseball In Mount Prospect

The VFW clubhouse in Mount Prospect will be the meeting place for all men interested in boy's baseball in Mount Prospect Wednesday evening, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m.

In order to function at an expanded rate over last year's Little and Pony League setup, approximately 25 more men will be needed to help in managing and coaching the boys 8 through 14 years of age.

All men interested are invited to attend this meeting. Newcomers who feel their boys will participate or anyone who would like to assist in keeping the boys sports-minded can be used.

Many dads feel they do not have enough time to act as a coach or manager. Therefore, it should be known that many very helpful jobs will require only one evening or possibly a Saturday afternoon once a week.

Arlington Sophs Hope To Regain 1st Vs. Bards

by BOB PADDOCK

Arlington's ever improving basketball team travels to Glenbard Friday night, then comes home to meet Riverside-Brookfield Saturday. If the Heights five is ever going to win more than one West Suburban league game, now's the time.

Glenbard is currently in third place, 2 games behind Downers and LaGrange. The Bards lost to York Friday in convincing fashion, and are certain to come back strong for the Arlington affair. The Glen Ellyn school won the DeKalb holiday tourney during the holidays.

THE CARDINALS will be strengthened for the pair of games by the addition of Wayne Mueller, a letterman last year now back with the team. He saw 2 minutes action against LaGrange last week, and looked good while on the floor.

The locals lost a 71-58 decision to Glenbard earlier in the year, with 13 and 10 point quarters the second half. They fell to Riverside in a double overtime immediately after the holidays, 73-72, so have an opportunity to win this weekend.

THE FROSH-SOPH game is certain to rate headlines Friday night. Arlington is just one game out of first place in this division, with Glenbard at the top. If Heights can win Friday the Cardinals can move into a tie for the lead with games with Riverside, York and Hinsdale remaining.

That other time Coach Maurice Klotz' five tallied 7 points the third period, 4 the final, for a 48-35 defeat. That kind of scoring never wins games. Local frosh-soph fans are hoping for victory number 9 in 11 league games Friday, and number 10 Saturday against Riverside. R-B formerly fell before the Heights five, 57-49.

Other games find Hinsdale at Downers, LaGrange at Riverside, and York at Maine Friday, plus Glenbard at Hinsdale, Maine at LaGrange and Downers at York Saturday.

New Bowling Alley

Jack Gunnell, owner of the El Rando cafe, has announced his purchase of Sobie's, Rand rd. and rte. 83 north of Mount Prospect.

Tentative plans call for the erection of a 12-alley bowling lanes in back of the present structure.

get to the state, and the chances of downstate winning the championship will be increased.

The suburban area is growing at a terrific rate and there will be more and much bigger schools year by year. What this area needs is more representatives in the state competition, rather than fewer.

Anyway, the "Sweet Sixteen" tournament and its traditions give Illinois fans a type of sports competition unlike any other. What is more needed, is either a telecast of the whole tournament or a new fieldhouse at Illinois which can properly house the fans who would like to see their favorites in action. We have given the arguments against the 16 team tournament other times on this page but you cannot appreciate the glamor, tension, interest, and excitement which increases session by session down at Champaign at tournament time unless you have been a part of it. We were down there the year they had the four team tourney and it was over before anyone ever got into the spirit of the event.

ANTIOCH FROSH-SOPHS have a two game lead on the field and three games to play. Bensenville's boys must beat them Friday and hope that Ela-Vernon can do the same thing February 25. It is a little too much to ask.

However, if the Bisons turn the trick they have a pretty good chance of finishing second, the best they have done in many years.

If Palatine comes through at Glenbrook Friday the stage will be set for the showdown at Antioch next week, Friday, February 18. Since Palatine surprised the Sequoits January 7, and then Warren beat them the following night, Coach Scott has realized his team is handicapped by lack of height. To spread and annoy the offense Antioch has played a man to man rushing press defense all over the floor with unusual scoring success.

The Sequoits have won 16 out of 18 games to date and will be primed for Palatine next week. The Antioch gym, seating only one third the number handled at Palatine, will not be adequate at all for the many fans who will want to see next week's game.

MUSIC AND BASKETBALL can be mixed . . . That was proven last week with one local cager scheduled to play trumpet in the state music contest at Champaign Friday and Saturday mornings, yet play basketball with the team at Wauconda Friday night and at Mooseheart Saturday evening . . . Intramural cage champs at DeKalb college included Riverside's Cliff Voss and Hinsdale's Tom Skubich . . . Third ranking scorer at Northwestern is Dick Mast from Knox, Ind., currently averaging 12 points per game.

Those trust busters in Washington better get after Leo Johnson, Illini track mentor, whose boys have taken eight straight indoor and outdoor conference track titles . . . Johnson will coach the U. S. entry in Pan-American games in Mexico City in March.

Contending for a spot with Illini fencers is Charles Blahous of Riverside, trying to make the varsity team, which has taken five Big Ten titles in a row . . . Kansas State frosh cage coach is calling Barrington's Roy DeWitz "one of the finest ball players on the squad this season" . . . The "M" club at Maine has organized an all-man cheering section, the "Blue and Whites" . . . Drafted by the Chicago Cardinals is York grad Frank Bernardi, who started at halfback for Colorado . . . In case you've always wondered, a new set of ten bowling pins costs $28 . . . Multiply that by number of alleys, several times a year, and you have something.

Arlington Plays Even Ball But Loses to LaGrange 74-71

One more shot at the basket and 24 percentage points was the difference between victory and defeat Friday night in the Arlington Heights high school gym when the Cardinals lost to La Grange, 74-71. The Heights frosh-sophs won, however, 58-49, to take over sole possession of second place in the younger divisions.

Both teams played fairly even ball throughout the game, bringing smiles to many Heights faces as they hoped the locals might gain their first win in history over La Grange. Coach Howard Lester's five fell behind 3 points the first quarter, stayed that way the second, fell to 4 the third, and came back to within 3 the final stanza.

LA GRANGE SHOT .444 from the field to Arlington's .420. The 24 percentage points made the difference as the visitors attempted 63 shots, Arlington 62. The winners dropped 28 through the hoop, the losers 26.

La Grange played its usual running game, with Heights stressing ball control. Bill Randag was hot at the basket with 33 points for Heigmhts, sinking "11 and 11". He sank 4 buckets and a free throw the first quarter, 3 and 4 the second, 2 and 6 the third and 2 baskets the final period. He was just two short of the record 35 points floor mark set by Anderson of York a short time ago.

THE CARDINALS also set a record while losing in hitting 71, one more than the 70 New Trier scored against Elgin in the sectional tournament two years ago. New man on the court for the Cardinals was Wayne Mueller, letterman from last year, who has been given the green light by his doctor to once more engage in school sports.

Wayne was forced to retire from football early in the season due to ill health. That situation has now cleared enough to make him available for basketball. He has been working out with the track weightmen, keeping in shape.

Bright light in the box score against La Grange was scoring by six Heights boys. John Sujack tallied 13, and Denny Maher 12, to follow Randag's 33. Top scorers for the winners were Meyer with 19, Caiazza with 17 and Freisinger with 16.

DePaul-Bradley Contest Heads Stadium Bill

De Paul and Bradley, whose basketball rivalry goes back fifteen years, meet again Saturday night, Feb. 12, in the Chicago stadium as half of the season's fourth collegiate doubleheader.

That's the same court where, in the climax of last year's twin bill series, Ray Meyer's Blue Demons outlasted Bradley in a memorable overtime thriller, 80 to 76. The Braves were to lose two of their three starts as well—but they also were to go on from that low point to runnerup honors in the NCAA finals. Their comeback, after an in-and-out season, was one of the great sport stories of the year.

THE OTHER HALF of the Feb. 12 doubleheader will pair Wheaton and Millikin of Decatur in a College Conference of Illinois game. Several thousand Wheaton students alumni and fans will sit in a special section. Smaller groups of supporters of Millikin and Bradley indicate that for the first time in several seasons, Chicago fans will be in the minority at a stadium doubleheader.

This season, Bradley is operating under a new coach, Bob Vanatta, who went there from West Point. Last year, his only season as Army basketball coach, he led the team to an 18-7 record, although his tallest regular was only 6-3. Before West Point, he was a successful coach at Southwest Missouri State Teachers where his teams twice captured NAIA tournament championships.

HIGH SCORER of the present Braves is Harvey Babetch, from Von Studen high in Chicago, who has an 18 point average. Paired with him at forward is Jerry Hansen, 6-4 junior with a 17 point average. Their tough schedule has included intersectional dates with Alabama, Texas Christian, Oklahoma City, Southern Methodist, Holy Cross and Loyola of the South.

Since losing to De Paul January 19 in Peoria, 65-62, Bradley has had another rugged array of opponents from other sections, including Louisville, Tulsa, Arizona and Houston. Their record is under .500 but, rebuilding and developing as they are, they are looking forward to another blazing finish.

De Paul, by the way, holds only a 10-9 edge in the all-time series that began in 1940.

Ronald Bessemer one of the mainstays of the Palatine High wrestling team has been out several weeks with an injury which may keep him out of the sectional tournament at Elgin next week. Certainly Palatine's chances will be much improved if Bessemer who has lost only twice in two seasons is ready for action. Bessemer has not been defeated this season and is a senior.

Heights Frosh-Sophs Keep Pace With Bards In LaGrange Victory

Heights frosh-sophs kept pace with Glenbard Friday night by turning the trick against LaGrange, 58-49. The locals, coached by Maurice Klotz, won the first 5 games this season, lost to LaGrange and Glenbard the same weekend, then won 6 more for an 11-2 standing to date.

The victory gave Heights sophomores sole possession of second place one game behind Glenbard, whom they'll meet Friday night on the Glen Ellyn court.

LAGRANGE took an early lead for a 12-9 advantage the first period. With 3 minutes to go the visitors held a 20-17 margin. Then the locals made 10 straight points for a 27-20 halftime margin, and added 3 more before LaGrange scored in the third quarter.

From then on, as Heights made LaGrange play the way they wished, the Arlington lead ranged from 7-13 points. Heights tallied 18 and 20 points the second and third periods, with high mark of the losers 17 in the third.

JACOBSEN looked particularly good for Arlington, showing well on rebounding. He grabbed many balls to stop LaGrange scoring threats, aiding the Heights cause at the same time.

Five boys scored for Coach Klotz, with Pat Brownell garnering 17, Dan Vittum 13, Bruce Bjorklund 13, Tom Jacobsen and Bill Palmer 5 apiece. For LaGrange Beloholavek tallied 11, Crowell 10, Stepinski 8 and Markley and Pearson 7.

Palatine Defeats Grant, But Loses To Hampshire

Palatine stayed on the heels of league leading Antioch Friday night by beating Grant, 65-37. After Palatine got underway they played some of their best ball of the season. Grant, tough at home and inconsistent away, started off strong but after gaining a 16-13 first period lead slumped badly the rest of the way.

For a period of 12 minutes Grant did not score a point and from a Grant lead of 20-17 the Pirates went into a 46-22 lead before the Bulldogs got their second basket. Palatine made 29 points while Grant was getting just two in this streak of scoring which made the game a rout.

ALAN ECK started the Pirates into the lead with four good shots in succession in the second period and Nesset, Schutz, and Hahnfeldt used their height to advantage in making the game one sided. Palatine hit 50% from the field. Roy Hahnfeldt moved up from frosh-soph center to varsity forward in an effort to fill a gap which has been much in evidence all season, came through with 14 points and some good rebounding. Alan Eck tallied 16 and Dave Schutz got 19. Bob Bein was outstanding for Grant with 18 points.

Grant frosh-sophs played a slow control game and used a big 15 point third quarter to down Palatine 31-21 No one on either team got more than two baskets or six points. The defeat dropped Palatine to sixth place with a 5-6 record and three straight league defeats.

SATURDAY NIGHT Palatine shot under 30% and could not fathom Hampshire's press defense in the first half as they lost a non conference game away from home 59-57. Hampshire ran up a 15-4 lead the first quarter and was on top 35-21 at the half and 44-38 at the end of the third quarter. Palatine came up fast at the finish with 15 points in the last four minutes and six in the last minute of play.

Eck had 17 and Goetz 15 for Palatine but together they took 49 shots at the basket and make 12. Zenk had 16 and Fillmore and Reid each 13 for the winners.

Dick And Dave Win Again In Skiing

Dick and Dave Brodnan, two-thirds of Arlington's youthful skiers, won more honors Sunday in two meets, Dave taking second place in Class C in district junior championships at Williams Bay, Wisconsin, and Dick copping first in Class C at Mesick, Michigan.

Dave jumped 53 and 55 feet, the same as winner D. Norby of Madison at Williams Bay, but the latter rated 5½ higher on points for the title. Class C was for 12 and 13-year-olds.

Dick leaped 104 and 117 feet at Mesick for top honors. Larry Schroeder, the other third of local ski-some, is now able to get around on crutches after breaking his leg earlier in the season. He hasn't been able to return to school yet, but is expected to in March.

A junior ski meet is scheduled for this Sunday at Norge hill, Fox River Grove, providing the snow lasts. The hill is sheltered from the sun, so tournament sponsors are going ahead with plans for the meet, starting at 1:30 p. m.

Antioch Rolls Over Glenbrook; Grayslake Wins

Antioch continued to run roughshod over all competition since their defeat early in January at Palatine. This time the victim was Glenbrook by an 83-57 count with Mike Haviland sinking 16 field goals for 32 points, high in the conference for the season.

The Sequoits outscored Glenbrook in every quarter leading 38-27 at the half and running up 13 points of their final margin with a 28 point last period total. Ben Floyd assisted Haviland with 17 points. Bob Boyd, league leading scorer hit for 30 points for the third time this season for Glenbrook. Six foot eight Bob Ritchy played center for Glenbrook for the first time and got eight points. Antioch took the crucial frosh-soph game, 43-40 and just about clinched first place.

Vanderspool, Peregrin, and Moran each got six field goals for Grayslake, a total only Al Bathrick matched for Ela. Bathrick scored 16 points and George Severance 15 to top Ela. Vanderspool 17 and Moran 16 for Grayslake.

THE 'HAWKS have also added three new players to their roster in efforts to bolster their reserve strength for the coming tournaments next month. New-comers are Harold Freberg, former Notre Dame frosh star; Gino Dal Ponte, a heavy scorer and strong rebounder; and Ken VanSickle, another strong rebounder and good playmaker.

This coming Monday evening the 'Hawks play host to the powerful Harmening Catts of Elgin at Arlington Heights high school. Game time is slated for 8:00 p.m. One of the many outstanding performers for the Elgin quintet is big Bob Peterson, former University of Illinois star and more recently of the professional Milwaukee Hawks.

Elgin brings with them an impressive record, with but one loss coupled with their numerous wins. That loss was the first time they were beaten since the 'Hawks handed them an 85-69 defeat in the finals of the McHenry County tournament last season.

Wauconda Grabs Early Lead, Keeps Going To Beat Bisons

by BILL RIPPERGER

Friday night Wauconda's varsity Bulldogs whipped visiting Bensenville, 62-52. High scorer of the game was Bulldog Gene Jaskot with 9 baskets and five free throws for 23 points. His team mate Ed Okpisz collected 14. Little Ken Sirotzki paced the Bisons with 19 points while Bob Heinrich scored 14.

Wauconda controlled the opening jump and Ed Okpisz scored on the first shot of the game. Seconds later, Okpisz scored again as the Bulldogs grabbed an early 10-4 lead. Maintaining a rapid pace, Wauconda scored again and again until they led 21-12 when the buzzer ended the first period.

IN THE SECOND quarter the Bulldogs started rolling again when Suec, their four foot ten inch guard, sank a long set shot. Ken Sirotzki scored five points on free throws for Bensenville but they still trailed 40-27 at halftime.

Following the half's rest, the Wauconda squad slowed somewhat and both teams scored 11 points. Bob Heinrich and Ken Sirotzki accounted for all of Bensenville's points.

Led by guard Joe Masotti, the Bisons started a scoring drive in the final stanza, but, even though they outscored the Bulldogs, they weren't able to win and were defeated, 62-52.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Bensenville varsity was solidly trounced, 70-48, in a non-conference tilt at Mooseheart. Mooseheart's Jay Nothacker led all scoring as he collected 24 points on 10 baskets and four free throws. Ken Sirotzki and Bob Heinrich were high for Bensenville with 19 and 10 points respectively.

Mooseheart, using an all court press, grabbed the opening tipoff and Nothacker tipped in his first basket. While dribbling through Mooseheart's press in the first period, Ken Sirotzki drew many fouls. He sank four out of six free throws to give the Bisons a 15-13 edge at the quarter's end.

OPENING the second stanza, Sirotzki was involved in a double foul. Little Ken sank his charity toss, one of nine which he collected in the game. Later in the period, he was intentionally fouled and sank another. Score at halftime was 26-24, Mooseheart.

In the second half Mooseheart again got the opening tip and Nothacker bagged his fifth basket. He dumped in three more in the following minutes and with only two seconds remaining in the third period, his team mate Roper sank a long set shot, giving Mooseheart the edge, 42-40.

Nothacker slipped in a jump shot from the corner to open the final stanza in which Mooseheart really ran over the Bisons. They outscored Bensenville 28-8 and sent them down in defeat, 70-48.

Palatine Wrestlers Top Glenbrook, Zion Benton

Palatine high wrestlers made it 10 wins and a tie in 12 matches this season this past week when they added Glenbrook and Zion-Benton to their list of victims. The Pirates bested Glenbrook Saturday night, 24-22, and Zion-Benton the previous Tuesday, 31-21.

At Zion Palatine weighed in slightly overweight in the case of eight out of 12 men and a shift in assignments cut the team efficiency. Pollien (103), McCreery (120), D. Lundgren (138), and Diiks (145) won decisions while Hans Wehner (133) and Larry Wheeler (heavy) won on pins and the 165 bracket was forfeited.

SATURDAY NIGHT Palatine had a 16-5 lead after five matches but Corso of Glenbrook beat Verdung (P) Palatine to tie the score 19 all with two matches to go. John Sveiven of Glenbrook handed Larry Wheeler his first defeat of the season in the 175 class and Glenbrook took a 22-19 lead.

Then Leonard Rhode pinned Jerl May, conference football tackle for five points, which meant the victory.

Bensenville Sophs Top Wauconda, Mooseh'rt

by MAX ZOLLNER

Extending their string of wins to five, Bensenville's sophs rolled over a host Mooseheart team, 53-37, in a non-conference bout last Saturday. There were many fouls and Lars Hendriksen sank 16 from the 15 foot line for Bensenville. He notched 6 baskets, too, which together with the 16 free throws, gave him a total of 28 points for the night. Leon Langguth, also of the Bensenville squad did a magnificent rebounding job and tallied 21 points.

Opening the first period, play was fast and Mooseheart, using a full court press, jumped to a quick 4-1 edge. But Bensenville, getting accustomed to the floor, came back with two baskets and had tied the game, 12 all, at the end of the quarter.

THE BISONS, having found a remedy for the press, sank 3 more baskets to gain an 18-12 lead. At intermission, however, the Mooseheart boys had cut that to only 3 points, 24-21.

Again in the third period, Bensenville gained a small lead as Langguth and Hendriksen combined for 14 points.

The pace proved too fast for Mooseheart in the final period an dthe Bison subs ran the final to 53-37.

BENSENVILLE SOPHS, traveling to Wauconda last Friday, put down a strong Bulldog team, 46-43. Lars Hendriksen, who last week broke the sophomore scoring record, tallied 31 points for the Bisons. Leading the Bulldogs were Smith and Ridgeway as they collected 13 and 11 points.

First period scoring was evenly matched as Wauconda chalked up 10 tallies to the Bisons' 9.

BOTH TEAMS scored equally in the second stanza and Wauconda, with the help of Ridgeway's rebounding, maintained its one point lead at halftime, 21-20.

Starting things rolling for Bensenville in the third period was Lars Hendriksen as he stole the ball, raced down-court, and scored. This was the first of 7 baskets Lars tallied in the period.

Going into the final stanza, the Bisons had a slim, 34-31 margin, but they held Wauconda even in the scoring and edged them 46-43.

Home Owners Attention

NOW IS THE TIME TO GIVE A THOUGHT TO YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE HOME LIFE

Do you know that we are the only Building Contractor in Arlington Heights who has any choice building sites left on the south side on which to build that new home for you?

You and the children are now established here in Arlington Heights. Do you wish to stay here?

Have you outgrown your present home? Has your family increased?

Do you find you need more room, an extra bathroom, a basement, perhaps a recreation room or den?

Figure it out, yourself. Can you afford to make a change? Your present home even if inadequate for your present needs has no doubt increased in value since you bought it.

Your equity is now larger so at its present sales price you can now afford a new, more satisfactory home.

Do you know that choice building sites are becoming more and more scarce and in another year they will be practically impossible to obtain in a desirable south side location. WE HAVE THEM.

BETTER CONSULT WITH US NOW. WE ARE CUSTOM BUILDERS AND OWN A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF LOTS ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF TOWN.

We have many different plans to choose from and will build a home to suit your needs on one of our lots in the vicinity of the South School and Our Lady of the Wayside School and Church.

TRADE IN YOUR HOME

We are CUSTOM BUILDERS and will build a NEW HOME for you on YOUR LOT with YOUR PLANS or we have many lots available, and over 40 different plans to choose from. We appraise your home and will make you a TRADE IN GUARANTEE if your home qualifies. The amount of the guarantee will then be applied against the cost of the new home that we will build. By this method you eliminate a possible sales commission and the worry of selling your home and are assured of sufficient money to pay down on the new home even before selling it.

For Want Of A Penny

Into the Fence Post column of late,
Have flowed many words of seemingly hate;
Of new towns and old towns where neither side,
Will take the time out to swallow their pride.
And with these problems as great as they are,
They can't compare with parking your car,
After finding a spot on East Davis Street,
I found last Saturday my pennies deplete,
I scanned the meters lining our walks,
Those which the policeman stealthily stalks,
Taking a chance he would not arrive,
I was promptly ticketed at 10:35.
Sorry, mister, but you've over stayed,
But into this envelope your fine can be paid,
Fifty cents the sum, if done in two days,
If you wait longer, two dollars you pay.
I took the first choice, no time did I waste,
To the courtesy box I went with all haste.
As I think back to that dark day,
There's one thing for certain, crime does not pay.

Roselle Voters

During the Fiasco of December and January we became alarmingly aware of the lack of honest representation of all the peoples of Roselle.

On the night of February 18, you old timers and new comers alike, who are interested in keeping politics in our town clean, go to the city hall and make your nominations known. Let us not allow politics to get a further foothold in Roselle.

To have an honest representation on the village board we should have an alderman from each corner of Roselle, and a president of strong integrity.

Come — stand up and be heard February 18.

Wants Both Sides

Last week's letter from Vigilant Rolling Meadows presents only one point of view. He seems very concerned that a few facts and figures are coming to light. Why?

Yes, let us consider the name Taxpayer's Protection Committee. As we are all taxpayers, especially when we become homeowners, does this make us 'shady' as Vigilant seems to imply because this group is very concerned over what incorporation will mean to us in dollars and cents? He asks what price can this group be exacting? Perhaps this question could well be asked by "who started this entire proceedings in secret meetings of a select few and were careful that all the people did not become aware of what was going on?" I believe this would better qualify for the title of "shady deals."

I CANNOT help but wonder who really is most likely to benefit most from incorporating now . . . before the community can even grow to its full stature. Why the hurry to do so? Is it for my good as a homeowner or is it perhaps in order to gain control of zoning regulating so as to reduce lot sizes? Who would benefit from that? Vigilant suggests that our neighbors from Arlington Crest and other bordering and unwilling areas are hustling us to vote against it, but it is not hard to figure out a much better answer to the question of who is doing the hustling here.

Does Vigilant deny any of the facts from the letter he refers to or does he resort to name-calling to cover up some unpleasant truths? Can he deny them? Or are they actually in our brochures if we will only read them over without the rose-colored glasses?

IS HE AFRAID that if we are given both sides that his cause is lost? Can't the reasons given for incorporation stand up against the facts? Why be afraid to hear all the situation if there is nothing to hide? If I am to vote intelligently on an issue that so greatly involves my future and my purse I think I am entitled to both sides of the story.

Paints Picture

Neils Sorensen of Palatine, while on vacation in Jensen Beach, Fla., stopped in Lorenz Sundries to make a purchase.

On display was an oil picture with a placard explaining that anyone donating a dime to the March of Dimes, could paint a section of the picture. When the picture was completed, the names of the people who contributed, which were placed in a box, would be drawn and the lucky person would receive the oil painting.

Mr. Sorensen's name was drawn, and the picture will be mailed to him.

A total of 136 persons participated in painting the picture and $13 was contributed to the Chairman of the Jensen Beach March of Dimes.

It is a small thing, but heart warming, when so many people take time on a busy vacation to do something to help others.

Mother's March

Had I a thousand of the finest words at my disposal and the skill to arrange them in a fitting eulogy, I still could not express the gratitude and thanks due the wonderful volunteer workers for the Mother's March on Polio in Mount Prospect January 28 and to the many generous contributors. Because of the wonderful cooperation of everyone who took part, the Mothers' March alone collected $1,959.51 in Mount Prospect. Thank you all.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Now we know how Cinderella felt when her fairy godmother came to her and said, "Baby, go on and go to the ball." We are writing this in a welter of summer clothes as we are about to take off for the sunny south.

We just came in from sloshing through the slush of the dingy midwest. But we sloshed with a sunny smile on our loose lips because tomorrow will find us basking on any old beach that comes to hand. It is almost unbelievable.

Some time ago when a relative of ours was about to undergo surgery, we were appalled at the number of people who came to him to tell him dire things that had either happened to them from the same operation or to someone near and dear. We were forced to conclude that no good ever came from the knife.

It is the same now that we are about to take to the air, with the aid of an airplane. Everyone has some little somber tidbit to offer on the hazards of air travel. Had a saleslady ask us the last thing tonight if we thought the weather was all right for flying. This struck us sort of funny as it is about as clear as it can get and the moon is shining in all its glory. If it were any better flying weather we wouldn't even need the plane.

We have always known that we were a trifle scatterbrained but this trip has led us to the conclusion that we are almost witless. We start to do one thing, drop that to do something else and never get back to the first thing. We will land in Florida with a weird collection of clothing with a dish towel or two thrown in for good measure. One never knows when a dishtowel will come in handy.

So next week we will arrive back in town with our nerves in a state of hibernation and our back a mass of blisters. The whole thing makes us so happy that we hasten to urge all other tired housewives to prevail on their long suffering husbands to take a week or two off in the winter. It does such wonders for the morale and the complexion.

To you home lovers who must put up with the snow and slush, we wish you to know that we are quite capable of rubbing salt into your bleeding wounds. To those of you who have made the trip, we are sure that you understand our ecstatic state of mind. To the rest of you, we wish that you were going along. Bon Voyage to us.

Watch For Bogus $10 and $20 Bills

The U. S. Secret Service says that 22 varieties of counterfeit ten dollar bills and 19 varieties of phony 20 dollar bills are known to be circulating in the Chicago area.

Special agent in charge Harry Anheier released a list of the serial numbers of the bogus bills. Anheier said the phonies are imitations of federal reserve notes from all over the country.

The most common types of counterfeit 10 dollar bills bear the emblem of the federal reserve districts at Dallas and Chicago and the letters "K" and "G" in the federal reserve seal.

By far the most common variety of counterfeit 20-dollar bill in circulation here bears the emblem of the Chicago Federal Reserve district and the letter "G."

People who receive counterfeit bills are advised to call the police at once, to delay the passer without arguing with him, and to write his license number.

Bowling

It has been many years since I operated the Palatine bowling alley, but my interest is still with the bowlers. Many of the men whose names appear in your bowling scores every week got their start on the bowling alleys I operated in Palatine.

I noted with interest the score of 267 Mrs. Mabel Haemker made for high game, which I think is a record breaker in Palatine; Mrs. Schmoldt's score of 258 was also excellent.

That house league looks pretty good. By the way, I still think that Paddock's paper is the best all around news and sports publication I have ever seen since I left Palatine.

My barber shop opened at 7 a. m., closing it at 9 p. m. Saturdays there were no closing hours. Sunday hours closed at noon. I had a public bathroom, 50c, haircut, 50c, children, 35c. In between customers we played billiards as did the boys waiting for service.

Today's hours are 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., 5 days, no Sundays, $1.50 for haircut, Saturdays, $1.75; children, $1.25, Saturday, $1.50.

I want my old friends, and especially Tom Hart, to feel this letter is a greeting to all of them.

Required Answer

Until now I have refrained from taking part in public controversy concerning the incorporation of Rolling Meadows.

Recent letters to the Fence Post, in my judgment, require answer. For example, R. H. Nordstrom of Palatine relates the "aid" given Rolling Meadows by taxpayers of Palatine and Palatine township in connection with schools, fire protection and road maintenance. To my knowledge Rolling Meadows is the only subdivision in the county (let alone Palatine township) that has provided a school plant valued at approximately $300,000.00 without cost to a grade school district.

Furthermore, the "aid" is reciprocal, for the subdivision of Rolling Meadows added so much assessed valuation to the grade school district that its bonding power, which has been practically exhausted, has increased considerably. Recently there was erected a badly needed grade school in Palatine. This grade school is enjoyed today by the children of Palatine residents and the taxes of Rolling Meadows taxpayers will help pay for it. This is but fair and just and never have I heard a resident of Rolling Meadows compain about having to pay his rightful share for such an improvement.

IN CONNECTION with the fire protection district and the Township and bridge tax, the same is true. The residents of Rolling Meadows are obliged to pay and are paying on the same basis as any other resident within those taxing bodies. As a matter of fact the road and bridge tax levied can hardly be said to be benefiting Rolling Meadows as our roads are new and the taxes being collected on our homes for this purpose are being used everywhere within the township except Rolling Meadows. Again, however, it is submitted that no one in Rolling Meadows has opposed payment of this necessary tax even though we derive no present direct benefit from it. The community of Rolling Meadows would have no tolerance for any who would attempt to avoid his fair share of community taxation.

"Perturbed Palatine" writes and states that he or she hopes, in connection with Rolling Meadows, that the situation will not come to "Brother, can you spare a dime." Many cannot or will not see that it is just such a deplorable condition that we in Rolling Meadows are trying to forestall by early preventive action. The scourge of unincorporated areas is that while individual home owners may maintain their own properties, community facilities, i.e. streets, sidewalks, sewers, etc. deteriorate, and community vitality decays and dies in direct proportion thereto. We would hope that our neighbors in Arlington Heights and Palatine would realize that our purpose in seeking local control is to maintain and better community facilities.

THE INCLUSION of the race track and other desirable areas within the limits of the proposed city is conducive to this end. Some presently feel that our action in including these areas is antagonistic to the best interests of the neighboring communities. We would hope that reconsideration might lead to the conclusion that, over the years, enhanced property values resulting from the proper maintenance and betterment of community facilities best serves their interests as well as our own. It is certainly a matter of concern to all persons and all nearby communities that general property values be maintained or increased rather than diminished!

Many years ago before their incorporation the areas that are now Arlington Heights and Palatine were faced with the same problems that face us. These they solved by the formation of local governments which have added much to the attractiveness of suburban living. This, in turn, has caused many to forsake the large city in an effort to find a similar desirable environment for the raising of their families. Encourage us to do likewise in the solution of our problems and, upon our incorporation, look upon us not as rivals but as converts to your own way of life.

Petition Legal

On January 27, your column was kind enough to print a letter that seems to have aroused the ire of our fellow readers. I am accused of misrepresenting the facts. Inasmuch as most of my information was gathered through reading the Paddock Publications' account of the controversy, listening to the opinions voiced at the Mass meeting, as well as listening to some rather choice comments from personal friends in Palatine and Arlington Heights, I shall not retract what has been stated. I may add that I am not a politician—merely an ordinary citizen. I am not seeking office in the proposed city of Rolling Meadows, am not acquainted with Kimball Hill and have no other voice in this matter but my vote.

Many of us here in Rolling Meadows would have preferred to forego incorporation until some time in the future. Others thought it wiser to begin our government at this time. A petition was drawn up with the required number of signatures and presented to the court. This was not an illegal procedure but was carried out in accordance with the statutes of the state of Illinois. A qualified specialist in municipal law from the Illinois Municipal league, a non-partisan good-government group was selected to advise the city planners.

THE FACT that our petition for incorporation did not meet with 100% approval is not surprising. There may be flaws in our governmantal system but surely not so great as to warrant accusing it of employing Hitler and Stalin tactics. A great many of our cities and villages in these United States have been incorporated despite fierce opposition of dissenters who fail to recognize that the democratic system does not guarantee satisfaction to everyone concerned.

We all agree that our neighbors in the outlying sections have good reason to resent being annexed to our city. But, it is quite apparent that their efforts to prevent our incorporation bear the same stamp of selfishness they would apply to us. Consider the headlines in the Paddock Publications dated Thursday, Jan. 6: Palatine Seeks Ways to Oppose City Incorporation; Acreage Owners Protest Inclusion In Rolling Meadows Incorporation. As I stated in my first letter: "All they want is out!"

What have we citizens of Rolling Meadows to gain by voting against incorporation and helping them to get out? Needless to say, we regret that such ill feeling has to be incurred. But, it is only normal for us to wish to serve our own interests just as our neighbors are serving their own interests by seeking to prevent incorporation at this time!

ROLLING MEADOWS must have industrial property. Actually, a city with no industrial property to call on for revenue would be like a car without a motor. The present plan is ideally suited for our needs. As one of our citizens informed us: "The extreme advantage of including the industrial property along the Northwest highway and the Arlington Park race track within the corporate limits of the City of Rolling Meadows became obvious . . .It was felt the future financial advantage to Rolling Meadows far outweighed the possible objection of some individuals. The desirabiltiy of this industrial property and the fact that it would not have been available had people outside our community realized our intentions was demonstrated . . . when the Palatine village board formed a special committee to prevent further "raids" on desirable industrial and residential property."

Palatine citizens had ample opportunity to petition for the annexation of the valuable commercial area, but were found asleep at the switch. We in Rolling Meadows have no intention of giving them their "second chance" to control the development of this area as they desire it. We hope that government will provide some way to release the private citizens who do not wish to be associated with us as they would hardly be an asset feeling as they do. As for us, we choose to unite as a city of our own—not to be annexed to Palatine or Arlington Heights as a poor relation!

UNITED WE STAND
ROLLING MEADOWS

Bermuda Autos

The joys of motoring in Bermuda — they are such as to move me to advise that you just leave it to the taxis. In fact, you could not use your own, American car here, for it would be "oversize." A car here cannot be more than 160 inches long and 64 inches wide, unless you are a governor or one of some other six dignitaries; and these little things are amazingly able to get by whatever it is they have to pass on the little lanes which they call streets here.

In a taxi you and three of your friends may travel together, with what comfort you can imagine for a car of that small width. But the fact that cars are only 8-10 horsepower should not deceive you, for their "horses" are different from ours and 8-10 in this case means 50-60 in our language. If you go over 20 miles an hour—as much as 30 miles let us say, you can be punished with loss of your license for 6 months; and if you are "under the influence" woe betide you.

From the careful attention the taxi and other owners seem to give their cars, we judge that the rule against buying a new car oftener than five years is strictly enforced, for the whole family—and for your friends, too, because only immediate members of your family or full-time domestics can drive that family car.

OF COURSE, if you sell somebody else your car, and your five year period is not up, that car has to leave the country, or else you must wait at least a year before going into the market for another. The gates are firmly closed against used cars from outside Bermuda, too.

Everybody is always happy when they are allowed to quit showing that big, red-letter "L" on the car, while they "learn."

Our waiter here has a motorcycle; but less "affluent" Negroes and whites only have "power-assisted" or "auxiliary" cycles, that have a "one horse" motor which requires you to help with your own pedalling on the hills. Like all other countries, the cyclist must obey all traffic signals and make signals like the autoist does. He has to have a flashlight on his handlebars and a tail light on his mudguard.

OCCASIONALLY he takes the precaution to lock his cycle at the curb in daytime, but he certainly better had at night. Tiny shelters, near the gate in the stone wall for each home, often are built-in cycle garages.

A youngster under 16 cannot rent a powered cycle. You can take a member of your family or a friend on your cycle, for of course there is always a seat behind the operator, also—like in Holland, England and many other countries.

Since motor-drive vehicles came to be allowed here in 1946, there are many fewer flies and less dust; for they could not pave the roads for a horse-drawn setup, because it made them too hard. The few carriages that now meet the boat are picturesque, but often idle.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

I have a bit of wisdom to send your way today—the practicing of which may save you some frayed nerves and painful frustrations. Did you know that all people have an emotional cycle and that the highs and lows within an individual's cycle occur with amazing regularity? By keeping a careful record of your general feelings for the day (good, fair or poor), for a couple of months, you will discover you make a steady climb toward a happy and comfortable feeling of well-being, then, after a few days, you seem to descend into a feeling of depression.

Now, if you were to complete such a record for yourself and learn just about when to expect your low period, you could anticipate it and attempt to cope with it intelligently. To "cope with it intelligently" would mean, first of all, to learn to relax and take life easy during the two or three days of a depressing feeling—no big projects either in or outside the household. No attempts at airing family financial or other problems. Also, allow the children plenty of time to complete whatever tasks may come up—so that you won't have the slightest opportunity to become impatient.

NATURALLY, THIS CYCLE can be interrupted to some degree by outside activity. For instance, if you should be invited out to a lovely luncheon and bridge on the very day that you reach the low period of your cycle, you'll find, if you are having a good time, that the gaity of the affair will temporarily counteract any feeling of depression.

I don't think many mothers realize that children, too, go through such a cycle. A child may wake up one morning in a terrible mood, refusing to put on his clothes, refusing to eat breakfast and refusing attention from anyone but his mother. Barring the possibility of illness, he is pobably just in the midst of his low period, and if his mother observed carefully, she would very likely find that a similar day would occur again in about a month.

BEING A WISE MOTHER, she also would demand very little from her child for a couple of days, and certainly would discontinue any intensive instruction or training in which he may be involved. During these "difficult" days, when it seems as if a child needs more discipline, he actually needs more love and attention!

If you will check yourself daily, Peg, and learn just about when you can expect not to feel right up to par, it will be easier for you to understand why all at once your problems seem insurmountable, and it will be easier for you to understand the moods of the other members of your family.

My love,
Patty.

Soil Conservation Group Holds Its Annual Meeting

The third annual dinner meeting of the North Cook soil conservation district and extension service was held January 27 in the basement of the Evangelical Reformed church on Schaumburg and Barrington roads. More women as well as men are interested in the maintenance of their soils and are taking an active part in this farming business.

Harvey Pohlman, district winner of the Save Your Soil contest for Illinois was presented with a plaque by Carl M. Mees, farm adviser.

THE CONTEST was sponsored by the state department of agriculture and the soil conservation district. This recognition was given for outstanding work in soil and water management, which includes:

Complete farm plan progress in conservation and neatness of the farm.

Dr. C. A. Van Doren, project supervisor of soil and water conservation at the University of Illinois told the group how people live in Peru.

He has been stationed at Tingle Marie, Peru for 2½ years as director of the experiment station. His story and pictures showed land still green with foliage where the Aztes Indians built terraces back in the time of the Spanish Conquest, compared with land that is now wasted because no practices were applied.

He also brought back an item of interest to all consumers as well, the story of bananas, coffee, and tea production. How it grows and some of the problems involved.

EMIL HATTENDORF, chairman, North Cook soil conservation district, stated the purpose of the district. How the farmers in the district can obtain help in better rotation, conservation practices and good land use for efficient production.

Two directors' terms expired, Elmer Wente and Arnold Brockman. The new directors elected were Edmund Rohlwing, Schaumburg township and Elmer Bittner, Palatine township. The other directors are Emil Hattendorf, Hanover township, Xaver Schmid, Barrington township and Werner Kastning, Schaumburg township.

CARL F. MEES, farm adviser, reported briefly on the educational program carried on during the year. He stated that more help would be given the district since he has an assistant in North Cook and he would devote more time to marketing, one of the major farm problems.

Maurice Umbdenstock, technician for the district reported on the work done this past year, which is as follows:

Soil survey on 35 farms
Basic Conservation farm plans—33.
Strip cropping—25 acres.
Pasture improvements—65 acres.
Contouring—146 acres.
Waterways—2.
Tile—970 feet.

OTHER WORK on rotations, cover crops, preliminary surveys for tile and open ditch work was also done.

Special guests were several pastors of the neighboring churches who are also interested in good land use.

The ladies of the church were complimented on the fine dinner they served the group.

Milk was furnished by the district to help stress the importance of milk in our daily diet.

Up And Doing 4-H Club

The second meeting of the Up and Doing 4-H club was held February 1 at 7 p.m. at the home of Sharon Garlish. After the business meeting, the following girls gave talks: Bonnie Lay on woodcarving; and Sandra Busse on how to make a candy dish. Judy Moehling gave a demonstration on embroidery, and Sharon Garlish demonstrated how to make moccasins.

Judy Petry and Joyce Muller were guests. Recreation and refreshments ended the meeting.

Clean Beans

The American soybean association says proposed new soybean grades will reward farmers who sell clean beans.

DOWN ON THE FARM with Your Farm Adviser

Carl F. Mees

I have just returned from farm and home week at the University of Illinois in Urbana. While there I ran across many interesting people and many valuable reports. It would be impossible for me to report to you about all the happenings. There are so many sessions to go to one has to decide which fits his needs best.

I spent part of my time in the milk marketing sessions. We are going to try to put into practice some of the things learned. To us on the little heavy side, I found we could get a very satisfactory milk diet that would be reducing. I know some of you will say I don't like milk. But this diet includes milk, cottage cheese, butter, ice cream and other milk products. They can also be consumed in good quantities. I will put the list in this column sometime in the future.

I ATTENDED a banquet of 4-H Club members in X-tra yield corn contest sponsored by Illinois Farm Supply company while attending farm and home week.

The highest yield reported by the entries was 157 bushels per acre. This is a fine project for 4-H members to enroll in and a splendid record.

I want to offer a word of thanks to Elmer Wente and Arnold Brockman, retiring directors for the North Cook soil conservation district. These man have worked hard in trying to make this an outstanding district. Likewise, I want to congratulate Edmund Rohlwing and Elmer Bittner for accepting the responsibilities of directors. You men will experience some interesting problems. Two other men who have spent many long hours of time in helping organize and promote the work of the district are Emil Hattendorf, president and Xaver Schmid. You men are to be complimented for this fine work.

WERNER KASTNING, who has been on the board only a short time has likewise done much to promote soil conservation work. At soil conservation service annual meeting, special recognition was paid Harvey Pohlman, Schaumburg township district winner in the save your soil contest. Congratulations Harvey, for a job well done. May the plaque you received always remind you to do the best job possible in saving your soil.

On Wednesday February 16, are invited and requested to attend a county meeting to be held at the Farm Bureau office in Arlington Heights, at 1:30 p.m. Livestock management and poultry management marketing will be discussed by specialists from the University of Illinois. Mark the date on your calendar. You will find these meetings very much worthwhile.

State-wide Farm Electric Survey Slated This Month

If you have electricity on your farm, you can expect to get a survey card or form in the mail during February asking you to list your electrical appliances and equipment.

This survey is being sponsored by the Illinois farm electrification council to find out just how Illinois farmers are using electric power on their farms.

THE INFORMATION is being collected for use of the electric industry in promoting more extensive and efficient use of electricity on American farms and in rural areas. Your report will be treated confidentially, and names and addresses of individual farmers will not be generally released.

Co-chairmen of the survey committee of the IFEC are Robert W. Kleis, assistant professor of agricultural engineering at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, and E. C. Collier, state representative of the rural electrification administration, Springfield.

Kleis says that one result of the survey will be to show electrical farm equipment makers how farmers are using their machines. This information will help to guide their future production plans.

Power suppliers also will be better able to plan their future expansion needs to that electric power will be ready when it is needed on the farms. April 1 has been set as the date for survey results to be in and tabulated.

Report State Hybrid Corn Test Results

Important differences showed up in Illinois hybrid corn varieties in their resistance to leaf burning in southern Illinois last summer as a result of the severe drouth and extreme heat.

J. W. Pendleton, agronomist at the University of Illinois, College of Agriculture, reported this as one of the results of the University's hybrid corn tests at the 54th annual farm and home week program.

Pendleton also reports quite a bit of difference in resistance to corn borer in northern Illinois, where corn borer infestation was a little heavier last year than in 1953.

HOWEVER, the agronomist suggests that farmers do their own variety testing to go along with these statewide test results. Even when it's probably better to use several hybrids with slightly different maturity dates for a little insurance of your own, he says.

In 1954 the university tests covered 256 different hybrids on fields at Galesburg, Urbana, Brownstown, DeKalb and Ridgway. Seed corn producers nominate their own hybrids for the tests. You can get the complete results by writing bana,fora cop yof Bulletin 585.

STEWART'S DISEASE didn't hit Illinois corn nearly so badly this year as agronomists expected, according to Benjamin Koehler, professor of crop pathology at the college. Even so, inbred corn varieties showed marked differences in their resistance to it.

Koehler says that many of the hybrids bred for resistance to northern leaf blight were also resistant to Stewart's disease. Hybrid performance is measured by yield, moisture content at harvest, percentage of standing plants and height of ear.

LAW on the FARM

Division Fences

One good reason for the division fence law is to eliminate what used to be called a "devil's lane." This was a narrow strip of land, usually covered with weeds, between two fences put up by adjoining farmers. The division fence law provides for only one fence between farms, and each farmer must construct and maintain a "fair share" of the fence.

The fair share of a division fence is generally half of its length, and by custom (not law) each farmer takes care of the half of his right as he faces his neighbor's farm. This custom can be changed by mutual agreement, but it is not changed by selling a farm to another party. The incoming farmer is bound by the previous custom or agreement.

A FREQUENT question is: "What kind of fence do I have to build?" The answer is that it must be a legal fence, which is a fence 4½ feet high, sufficient to turn hogs, sheep, cattle or horses — depending on which animals are pastured on either side. That is, if your neighbor has hogs next to the division fence, he can force you to build a hog-tight fence on your part of the fence line—Even if you do not have any hogs on your side.

But an adjoining owner cannot compel the other to use certain kinds of materials. The law states that any fence "in good repair, consisting of rails, timber boards, stone, hedge, barb wire, woven wire, or whatever the fence viewers consider equivalent thereto . . . is legal and sufficient." If the owners cannot agree on the proportion of fence that each should maintain, or on the kind of fence, the fence viewers can be requested to make the decision.

IF ONE OWNER fails to construct his part of a division fence, his neighbor can give 60 days' notice and then construct all of it, charging the objecting owner for his half. Similarly, when one owner lets his part of the fence fall into disrepair, his neighbor can make the repairs after giving the objecting owner 10 days' notice.

In most cases it is advisable to ask the fence viewers for a determination before giving notice and constructing or repairing a neighbor's part of the fence. This will assist the farmer in collecting for the cost of fencing and labor.

Even better advice is to maintain friendly relations with your neighbor on division fence problems.

Sec. Busse Asks Farmers To Check Fire Hazards

"Nothing could be more discouraging than to overhaul your tractor, only to see it burn up next week in a tool shed fire. Or to finish your unfinished second floor, only to have a chimney spark set fire to the house," warned George Busse, secretary of the Mutual County Fire Insurance company.

Things like this shouldn't happen but they do. And they are all the more regrettable because they so easily could be prevented.

E. F. Schoppe suggested "Why not, before you do any improving or repairing around your farm this winter, take a few days to get rid of your fire hazards?"

1. First of all, check all of your electrical facilities. More fire losses result from faulty wiring, power tools, and appliances then from any other cause.
2. Next, check all your heating and cooking equipment—second biggest cause of fire losses. Replace or repair whatever looks defective in any way.
3. Then clear all rubbish out of sheds, barns, basements, attics. Fifty thousand fires get started every year in American rubbish heaps.
4. Check your lightning rods and television antenna for any line or junction breaks, and make sure the systems are properly grounded. Fires started by lightning burn up more than 33 million dollars every year.
5. Defective or overheated chimneys and flues are almost as bad. Get them back in good shape.

Busse said there are other fire hazards, but these are the worst. So concentrate on them. Clip this list, which lists the hazards in order of their importance, and eliminate the first hazards first.

Then do two more things:

Get your fire fighting equipment in good shape, just in case you do have a fire. Have fire extinguishers handy in strategic places, and be sure they still work. And connect fire hose fittings to your water supply.

As an added precaution, Busse suggested that property owners make sure they have enough fire insurance to cover any possible losses. (Fm

4-H And FFA Calf Club Sale At Urbana February 26

4-H AND FAA CALF CLUB ....

Assistant farm adviser John H. Bicket reminds 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America in this area the annual 4-H and FFA calf club sale in Urbana, February 26, will be a good opportunity to get a top quality project calf.

"If you're interested in getting a calf that has a good chance of being a blue ribbon show animal as well as a good foundation cow, you'll probably find it worth while to attend the sale," Bicket said.

THE SALE is sponsored by the Association as a means of placing first-rate project stock in the hands of youngsters at a fair price.

Bicket says that J. G. Cash, extension dairy specialist with the University of Illinois college of agriculture, has described the calves as an outstanding group. A total of about 100 will be sold. They will include the Holstein, Guernsey, Brown Swiss, Jersey and Ayrshire breeds.

THE FIRST CALF will go on the auction block promptly at 11 a.m. Saturday, February 26, in the stock pavilion of the college of agriculture.

Bicket points out that only bona fide 4-H and FFA members may buy the calves. If a member cannot attend, he may designate another person to buy an animal for him. But all purchasers must certify that the calves will be used only for 4-H or FFA dairy projects.

Sale catalogs may be obtained from the association's secretary, Leslie James, Mansfield, Illinois.

Rabies Quarantine Lifted In Cook County

The department of Agriculture in the State of Illinois has advised all supervisors that the rabies quarantine throughout Cook county which was imposed a year ago is now lifted. Sixty days have elapsed without a case of rabies in the area which automatically lifts the quarantine.

Local supervisors have been asked to publish the above fact and to thank the general public for their cooperation which has made the lifting possible.

Symphony Orchestra Plans Mid-Winter Concert February 20

Crafton, the program will also include Giordano's "Gerard's Monologue" ("Andre Chenier"), Mendelssohn's "Nocturne from Midsummer Night's Dream," Strauss' Waltz, "Wine, Woman and Song," Verdi's "Ah, Fors e Lui" ("La Traviata"), Morton Gould's "Pavanne and Guaracha," Mozart's duet, "La ci Darem la Mano," Noel Coward's duet "I'll See You Again" (Bittersweet) and Georges Enesco's "Rumanian Rhapsody no. 1."

Soloists for the program will be Phyllis Trenkmann, soprano, and Paul R. Eckley, baritone.

Tickets are now on sale by members or may be purchased at the door the night of the concert.

Here's A Tip! Don't Visit Calcutta Unless You Take Your Tipping Purse

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Calcutta is a city where few things run smoothly—unless lubricated by tipping oil, and even then the results are not good.

It is hard to mail a letter, to make a phone call, to walk in the street unmolested by beggars, to buy a pair of shoelaces, to get information about anything, to check out of a hotel or even to buy a sandwich. In short, at the end of the day a Westerner is "downright beat!"

WALKING DOWN the street can lead to all kinds of problems if one asks a stranger for directions. Once the visitor has opened his mouth, the stranger "attaches" himself and insists upon acting as guide. Dissuasion is futile. Only a tip will break the bond and retrieve the visitor's freedom.

At the post office, the chances are very slight that one will encounter a stamp salesman who knows on what continent lies Alaska, Portugal or Bolivia. Only some extra investigation will ensure that the letter has the proper amount of postage. Residents of the city say that the mail goes unmolested regardless of too little postage, anyway.

WHEN CHECKING out of one's hotel, the line of servants who stand waiting for their tips almost extends to the horizon! The first fellow brought the drinking water bottle every day; the second one filled it; the third took it away again, and so on down the line.

"Tip" psychology as applied to rickshaws, quickshaws (motorized version of the former), porters, etc. has its strange twists. Giving a man slightly less than he expects will keep him from further outcries. Paying him more, however, leads him to believe that the visitor is a soft touch, therefore he will but up a tremendous howl until more cash reaches his palm.

A PHONE CALL is high on the list of energy eaters. There is no dial mechanism so that efficiency depands entirely upon the operators—girls who are still amazed at Graham Bell's invention. The telephone book of the city is three years old, and what with the huge number of people who change their numbers because they "brought bad luck," it's hard to get a connection.

Very little confidence is had in what is printed or spoken. The price and departure for a ship or train is set as such-and-such, but it never seems to conform. Today their is no mail in the box, but tomorrow there appears a letter that reached Calcutta a month ago. One orders a cheese sandwich and the waiter brings lettuce and tomato instead.

WHEN HE'S CALLED back after a quick escape, he says blankly that here is no more cheese in the kitchen. Or, if the visitor was very unlucky, he was not quick enough to stop when that forty-seventh man dashed in front of the car, so that the angry mob of vehicle non-owners turns the car upside down and, unless the police are quick, try to set it on fire.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is the proper procedure for late arrivals at church services?

A. Enter the church very quietly. If a hymn is being sung, proceed to your seat. If you enter during a prayer, wait in the vestibule or at rear of church. It is unlikely that you ever would be tardy enough to enter during the sermon, but should this happen, slip quietly into a rear pew.

Q. What sort of boutonniere should the bridegroom wear at a formal wedding?

A. It may be a small gardenia or a spray of lilies of the valley, at a daytime wedding, a white carnation or any white garden flower. He furnishes similar boutonnieres for his best man and ushers.

Q. What is the correct way to eat baked potatoes?

A. These are served split, with butter in the heart. Smooth the butter into the potato, which is eaten from the skin. Do not take the potato from the skin and mash it on the plate.

Q. Is it proper to name a boy "John Jones II," rather than "John Jones, Jr."?

A. The "junior" is the only proper suffix if a boy is named for his father. "Second" means nephew or cousin, and never refers to the son.

Q. If someone has given you a birthday gift of wearing apparel, which is the wrong size, is it proper to ask the donor if it can be exchanged?

A. Certainly. Either ask the donor if he will have it changed to your size, or ask where it was bought so that you can exchange it.

Q. Is it now considered good manners to use a toothpick at the table? Lately I have seen this done by people of apparent refinement.

A. The rules remain unchanged. Toothpicks should never be seen in use, at the table or anywhere else.

Q. In what manner should friends be invited to a christening?

A. By telephone or informal note.

Evanston Hospital Has Record Growth

One hundred eighty-one patients from Arlington Heights were admitted to Evanston hospital last year and citizens of this community of all ages made 79 visits to the outpatient clinics.

The Evanston hospital annual report, just off the press, shows that in nearly every department of the hospital new records were established for the volume of services performed during the year ending September 30. Over five hundred more patients were admitted than in the previous year and almost four thousand more than ten years ago.

Number of births hit an all time high with 1,853 babies born, over eighty more than last year and over 500 more than in 1945. The number of laboratory tests has jumped from more than 87,000 in 1945 to over 174,000 last year which is also an increase of more than 16,000 over the 1953 period. Over a ten-year period the number of emergency room visits has almost tripled—3,866 in 1945 and 9,602 in 1954, an increase of about five hundred visits over 1953.

Subject: Studio Originals

A bad-weather business slack is not too unwelcome at Studio-House; if we didn't get such a period once in a while, we would never have time to concentrate on some pet projects or experiments. During the "short winter" we had in January (it will probably be snowing 10-foot drifts when this goes to press!) we sculptured out a couple of numbers that we had been wanting to do, got the molds made and then had time to do some casting. Both ideas are commercial, although I am too late to deal with a manufacturer on one of them because it concerns the 14th day of this month and the two dozen or so that I made will be on sale only in our Studio. If you are looking for an unusual Valentine, this might be it!

I might mention that being a George Gobel fan is almost necessary to appreciate the big, red, three-dimensional heart-plaque that will serve a decorative purpose long after the holiday is passed. Hang it in your kitchen or breakfast nook or even your bedroom; it adds a gay note of color as well as beng a sentimental reminder. The heart comes neatly packed in a white folder that says "Dear Valentine—Here is my Heart." Open it up and then you see, carved on the heart, George's famous words—"You can't hardly get them no more!" You can buy the plaques decorated or undecorated.

The other idea is a piece of statuary—out of the figurine class because it is almost twelve inches high. I could have called it "Young Girl With Folded Hands" but instead I'm naming it "Centerpiece Girl" because that was the idea I had in mind—an all-occasion decorative piece—that can be "dressed" up or down.

A friend of mine who does a lot of entertaining first sparked the idea by saying that she wished she would find some table center-piece that would lend itself to different occasions. She liked variety and uniqueness but said that all her spare storage space was now taken up by storing different centerpieces she had used in the past—and didn't want to repeat, especially for the same guests.

So "Centerpiece Girl" a tall, handsome, happy-looking, young thing came into being and you put different skirts on her to suit different occasions. All kinds of material can be used to make the skirts, including fancy papers and you can follow current style fads because basically she wears a simple bodice (carved into the statue) and narrow skirt. Put a "Colonial" skirt on her for Washington's birthday, use white or blue tarleton with firecrackers for the 4th of July, gold or silver paper for other holidays. Add stars, sequins, glitter, felt-trims, fresh flowers, everything you do is done to the skirt and there are a jillion ideas!

Imagine how you could dress her up in lace, white satin and pearls for a wedding or bridal shower. She can wear a veil because her hair is done in a long classic bob. Neither too tall nor too small, there is lots of leeway for original ideas and she is fun and easy to dress because I have worked out a basic flared skirt pattern which can be modified and changed in many ways. Style-wise, the biggest change that can be made in a woman's garment is in the skirt and she will never look like the same girl twice! (A dozen skirts can be stored in a paper bag.)

Like all our other castings, she is made out of Marlite—a new and comparatively inexpensive material that can be given a porcelain gloss finish and which is stronger and lighter in weight than a ceramic piece. Students may purchase and "do" the figure themselves or we will paint to order. I exercised great care and patience in making this mold because insofar as I know there is nothing like the "Girl" on the market and I have a hunch, she may want to go places! (Nice present for a new housekeeper.)

Pre-Spring Trim Averts Drain Of Tree Reserves

Anytime is a good time for trimming trees, but dormant pruning has certain advantages.

That's because such trimming helps not only the tree, but the surrounding landscape and lawn, as well. Trimming now doesn't mess up flower beds, shrubs or lawn as it is likely to do in the late spring or summer. And the tree man has more time to devote to this chore than during the hectic growing season.

The initial flurry of spring growth largely is in ratio to the stored reserves of sugars and starches in all woody portions, points out H. E. Rioux, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. Biggest food reservoirs are the trunks and larger branches. Removal of smaller inside branches at this time helps trees unfold their foliage in fuller glory later. Inside twigs and glory later. Instide twigs and branches are not in a position to receive their full share of sunlight. Because of this, they produce and store a minimum of food. Such unneeded inside woody growth, eliminated now, will not demand a share of next growing season's food reserves.

Some people are reluctant to authorize dormant pruning since they feel the "bleeding" of maples, box elders and birches is detrimental. Fortunately, this type of bleeding is more unsightly than harmful, according to Mr. Rioux, who calls attention to the healthy and vigorous sugar maples that have been heavily tapped for sap each year for generations.

Interior twig and branch pruning reduces wind resistance and damage by summer storms. It allows sunlight to filter through to aid lawns.

Azalea Show In City

The 13th annual Azalea and Camellia show, presented at Garfield and Lincoln Park conservatories by the Chicago park district under the direction of chief horticulturist William C. Blaesing, will open Sunday, Feb. 13, and continue through Sunday, March 6.

In Garfield Park conservatory the show will be reminiscent of the famed azalea trails in the south.

In Lincoln Park conservatory the companion show will be highlighted by a naturalistic scene of a waterfall spilling into an azalea-banked pool.

Chamber Music

Miss Dorothy Lane, harpsichordist, will appear as featured performer with Northwestern University's chamber music society at 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 13, in Lutkin hall, Orrington ave. at University pl., Evanston

Tickets, at $2, will be available to non-series subscribers at the door.

Mailman's Corner

Once more the mailman has a chance to improve his living conditions through increased salary benefits; and once more the chance is largely dependent on the whims and caprice of Congress and the post office department. Unlike any other large body of skilled laborers, post office employees do not have full union recognition.

We have to depend on the will of the American people and the men we send to office in Washington, for our livlihood. The letter carrier has no right to enforce his demands by striking. Communication workers in other fields of equal importance to the national welfare do have that right, and are willing to exercise it unless their demands are met.

LETTER CARRIERS and clerks, especially those in the starting brackets, definitely do not receive a wage large enough to permit them to live up to the American standard of living. Evidence of this is reflected in the fact that a large proportion of the carrier's wives have to do some kind of work outside their homes in order to make enough money for the necessities of life. Medical and dental attention is often neglected because of inability to meet the bills for such services.

A situation where men have to work 25 years before reaching top salary in the service is definitely unfair and inexcusable. Men who are capable and are doing work equal to those in the top brackets are unfairly paid a wage as much as $1,000.00 per year less than men with more service, due to the fact that there are ten salary grades with increased pay based solely on length of service, rather than on the ability and efficiency of the employee.

IT IS TIME now that men and women in the postal service should have the right to bargain with the government on matters which effect their general welfare on a free and equitable basis. No lasting equitable benefits can come to the employees as long as their representatives go to the bargaining table with one hand tied behind their backs.

Letter carriers have the reputation of being devoted civil servants, and rightly so. Throughout the years they have worked under handicaps and at pay rates which do not exist in comparative industrial or professional fields, yet have done so with a loyalty and devotion to duty above honest reproach.

FOLKS, you can help us in our struggle for a decent living, good medical and dental care, and the right to raise our children on a decent American standard of living. Write or wire your Congressman expressing you interest in our welfare today. Definitely we do not want a buildup such as we had last year when our raise was passed, then vetoed. It could happen again, despite present assurances of a raise and other needful legislation.

Next time you see your mailman, be in a position to tell him you have done your bit to help him improve his living standard by writing to your Congressman.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Richard Strauss, that controversial genius who have us "Salome" and "Der Rosenkavalier" (both disced in exemplary performances on London Records), perfected the orchestral tone poem which Franz Liszt had inaugurated in the 19th century. From Strauss' brilliant pen came such masterpieces as "Don Quizote" and "Also Sprach Zarathustra" (both of which you'll find on individual 12-inch London platters). Two of his best known works are studies in contrast: "Till Eulenspiegel," the musical story of a lengendary rogue who ends up on the gallows, and "Death and Transfiguration," Strauss' masterful musical impression of a sick man's struggle against death. In these, he reveals an orchestral skill abounding in startling colors, a sweep of melody which grips the listener at the very outset.

William Steinberg, who in this critic's humble opinion, ranks high among the ten best conductors in the world, interprets both these two latter scores on a single 12-inch Capitol recording whose tonal reproduction is a revelation to the hi-fi enthusiast.

MENTIONING London Records reminds us that this enterprising firm deserves high praise for introducing American audiences to the music of the late Carl Nielsen, Denmark's greatest composer and whose creative idiom makes him worthy of a high place among the most original musicians of our century. Recently, London offered his dynamic Fifth Symphony, music of extreme power and eloquence.

Now a beautiful 12-inch platter brings us the first-time waxing of his three exquisite Motets, Opus 55, for unaccompanied choir (which on this disc is the great Danish State Radio Madrigal Choir under Mogens Woldike) and the magnificent "Commotio," Opus 58, for solo organ (Georg Fjelrad is the former here).

Don't Be Fooled!

A softener that requires any attention whatever for regenerating is NOT automatic.

In the Rainbow Automatic, the nuisance of regenerating has been entirely eliminated. A simple, dependable electric timer does this for you — while you are sleeping.

Regeneration occurs during the night once or oftener each week, depending on how much soft water is required and the use of a Rainbow Automatic is as convenient and trouble-free as an automatic water heater.

Needs salt only 2 to 3 times yearly. Softens - Filters - Removes Iron and Corrosive elements. This new type of regeneration is the greatest advancement in water softening since its discovery. Our backwash method keeps tanks and zeolite clean and fresh for years.

A softener that requires attention is as old fashioned as a water heater that needs to be lit.

No other automatic softener approaches the Rainbow Automatic in simplicity and dependability. Old methods of regenerating have been discarded and our new and improved method takes over.

With Rainbow Automatic you always have Soft Water. There are no buttons to push, no indicators to set and NO attention is required for regenerating. No water or salt is wasted because only the quantity necessary to supply actual demand for soft water is used. There is no watching, testing or waiting. LESS salt is required for regenerating. Regeneration is NEVER forgotten or neglected. The savings are GREATER than can possibly be obtained with any non-automatic softener.

Soft Water is Always On Tap. Clock operated — no attention whatever required for regeneration. The clock does all the remembering and unfailingly regenerates the softener. The clock merely trips a switch to 'On' position to start regeneration and trips it "Off" when regeneration is completed. All control parts and piping are of long-lasting copper and brass. Ten (10) year guarantee.

Gas Rate Increase Means 40c A Month To Gas Heated Homes

Northern Illinois Gas Company has announced that its share of the Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's proposed $10,700,000 boost in its wholesale cost of gas to be effective March 2 will increase the bills bi-monthly residential customers approximately 40 cents monthly beginning with bills issued in May. Subject to the consent of the Illinois Commerce Commission, the increase to the utility's 475,000 customers will be about 3.7%.

The increase will be effective through the operation of Northern Illinois Gas Company's purchased gas adjustment clause under which the company may raise its rates when pipeline companies boost their wholesale prices, or lower the rates when the cost of gas is reduced.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Every person who has worried even a little bit with the problems of schools has come to the conclusion that no home supports its children in the public schools. A fairly valuable home with only one child may pay that child's way in a given school.

Here and there, individual persons begin to wonder, "Is there not some way in which parents may be put in the position of paying their fair share of their children's education?"

THIS SOUNDS good, until we examine the laws relating to school support, and the philosophy behind those laws. Who benefits by universal public education is the crucial question in the school code.

It might seem that schools are operated for the benefit of parents or children who are going to grow up. If that be the case, it is only right that the individual family should maintain its fair share of education.

Historically, the public school came into being because the founding fathers saw that education was a necessity if this sort of country were to survive and grow. Conditions in the former colonies varied from one state to another.

THE OLD Northwest Territory became the model upon which public education support is based. A specific amount of land in each township was set aside for schools and each landholder was required to contribute an equitable amount of firewood and cash for teachers' salaries. Education was for the good of the community.

Thus, school attendance became compulsory until a child reached a given age; truancy follow-up was regarded as a matter of police enforcement rather than educational policy. The community said, in effect, "It is a matter of society's benefit if children are educated; it is to society's detriment if that education is neglected by parent or child."

As the structure of finances became more complicated, this point of view led to the development of state aid to schools. It led to the necessity for community planning because we cannot now support homes on residential communities only — especially if those residences are of modest proportions.

But it also placed communities in the position of saving to tax themselves for schools. In an area which is growing in population this has created a twofold problem. A community with good schools attracts new residents—who overload the facilities, since the people must approve expansion programs, human nature is such that they cannot be brought to do it until the situation is critical.

The Citizen's Advisory Committee on High School District 214 has sought to face this problem with an appeal to the intelligence and responsibility of the people of this area. It has produced a 3 or 4 step program to cover the next 5 or 6 years of forseeable high school enrollment and building needs. This program has been fully reported in the news columns of this paper. But what happens to that high school and all the high schools and grade schools around us depend upon the responsiveness of the people.

Society is the beneficiary of the public education program. If Johnny makes more money some day because he was so well educated, he has that much more to offer to the society of which he is a part.
